STILL ANOTHER REPORT ON PAWTUCKET BRIDGE

Harbor and Land Commissioners Heard From—The Park Board Visits Playgrounds

The board of harbor and land commissioners has been heard from in reference to the building of the proposed Pawtucket bridge, and the report of its engineer to some extent follows the line of that of Prof. Geo. F. Swain.

The following letter, which is self-explanatory, was received this morning by Mayor Murphy:

Hon. Dennis J. Murphy, Mayor of the City of Lowell, Lowell, Mass.

Dear Sir:

I am directed by the board of har-

MRS. BECKER APPEALS TO WHITMAN

Justice Ford Denies Motion for a Third Trial

JUSTICE FORD

"I'll Die Like a Man Anyhow," Becker Tells Warden

ALBANY, N. Y., July 29.—Mrs. Becker arrived here at 11:30 today to make a final plea to Gov. Whitman for her husband's life. She was accompanied by John B. Johnson of Becker's counsel. Mrs. Becker did not learn until after her arrival of the governor's departure from the city. She said her plans were uncertain.

Shortly before Mrs. Becker's arrival the public entrance to the executive chamber in the capitol was closed and a plain clothes man placed on guard. An unconfirmed rumor declared that some New York gunmen had arrived in Albany. Another report stated that the governor would return to Albany early in the afternoon and would receive Mrs. Becker immediately on his return.

After a conversation with William Orr, Gov. Whitman's private secretary, over the telephone, Mrs. Becker and Johnson went to a hotel. It was learned that the governor had notified Becker's counsel in New York that he would be out of town during the day but the message failed to reach Mrs. Becker before her departure for Albany.

IMPORTANT CONFERENCE

GERMAN IMPERIAL CHANCELLOR AND AMBASSADOR GERARD CONFER

BERLIN, July 29, noon, via London, 4 p. m.—Dr. Theobald von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German imperial chancellor, who returned to the capital yesterday from a visit to the army headquarters in the field, where he talked with Emperor William, sent for James W. Gerard, the American ambassador to Germany, today.

The conference between the American ambassador and the German chancellor is expected to have an important bearing on the future development of the relations between Germany and the United States.

IF YOU CAN'T SLEEP TRY DYS-PEP-LETS

A slight disturbance of the stomach is enough to keep a person awake all night, though scarcely realized itself. Dys-pep-lets promote digestion, correct sour stomach, and promptly relieve many cases of sleeplessness. They are absolutely free from all narcotics and should be kept at every bedside as a convenient, agreeable and harmless remedy for this very trying and wearing trouble.

At all druggists, 10c, 25c, 50c or $1.

Tomorrow, Saturday and Monday are Ransack Sale Days at

THE EASTLAND DISASTER

U. S. Department of Commerce
Inquiry Under Supervision of
Sec. Redfield

CHICAGO, July 23.—Examination of Charles C. Beckler, steamboat inspector of Grand Haven, Mich.

An investigation of the circumstances of the construction of the boat was recommended "to ascertain if there can be found legal methods by which those responsible for its defects in construction can be held accountable."

State's Attorney Hoyne will decide today how far the county grand jury can proceed in view of Secretary Redfield's representations yesterday that the state lacks jurisdiction over federal inspectors located in another state.

United States District Attorney Clyne prepared to compel a federal grand jury to investigate the question of criminal responsibility for the accident.

Speaking of possible action by the state grand jury, he said:

"We will demand the right to enter proceedings against the two steamboat inspectors and the boat captain named by the coroner's jury in advance of any action by the state attorney following indictments by the grand jury. These men are government officers. However, the state will have the fullest co-operation from the government."

The investigation ordered by the city council was abandoned today and the council committee decided to petition President Wilson to appoint an investigating commission to act independently of federal authorities. The president also was petitioned to have the government make a stability test of every excursion vessel running out of Chicago.

TO PLACE RESPONSIBILITY

CHICAGO, July 28.—Governmental efforts to place the responsibility for the capsizing of the steamship Eastland in the Chicago river last Saturday got under way today with the convening of the federal grand jury and the opening of the investigation by the steamboat inspection service under the direction of Secretary of Commerce Redfield.

Plans for both inquiries were completed at conferences which lasted nearly all night.

Call Owner of Eastland

United States District Attorney Clyne expects that among the first witnesses before the grand jury will be William H. Hull, general manager of the company owning the Eastland.

One of the points to be laid before the grand jury is the competency of the crew of the Eastland, reports of investigators indicating that many of the crew were unfamiliar with nautical work. Evidence supporting a charge of negligence also will be presented to the grand jury.

Coroner's Jury Report

The county grand jury which was adjourned yesterday following a conference between Secretary Redfield and State's Atty. Hoyne, was reconvened today and the report of the coroner's jury recommending that six persons be held before it.

A charge of manslaughter was recommended by the coroner early today against William H. Hull, general manager of the company owning the Eastland; Harry Pedersen, captain, and Joseph N. Erickson, chief engineer of the Eastland; Walter K. Greenbaum, general manager of the Indiana Transportation company, which chartered the Eastland, and Robert Reid and

FUNERAL OF MR. DURGIN

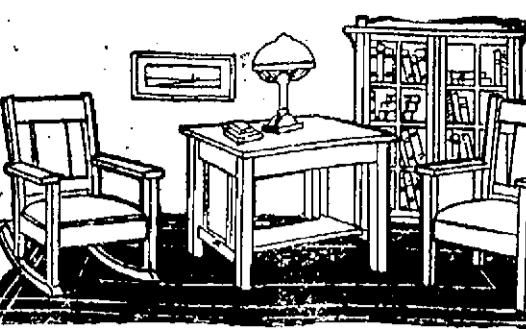

LATE PRINCIPAL OF STATE NORMAL SCHOOL BURIED IN THE LOWELL CEMETERY TODAY

The funeral of Cyrus A. Durgin, who died in Lowell, N. H., July 26, took place in the Lowell cemetery services were held at the hour of 2 o'clock. Rev. Raymond G. Clapp, pastor of the First Unitarian Congregational church, officiated. The services were simple. The entire teaching staff of the State Normal school of which deceased was principal, attended the funeral in a body as a last tribute to one whom their fond and respected. The state of education was represented by Dr. Davis Sheldon, state commissioner. The bearers were Clarence M. Wood, William E. Riley, Hugh J. Molloy, Herbert D. Bixby, Jeremiah O'Neill and Moses Hobson. The body was surrounded by numerous floral offerings as a silent tribute from the many friends of deceased. Burial was in the family lot in the Lowell cemetery where the capital gravies were reared by Raymond G. Clapp, Funeral arrangements were in charge of Alvin F. Estlin, Brown, under the direction of Undertaker George W. Healey. The burial was private.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

BIG OUTING AT GENOA CAMP IN TYNGSBORO—KNIGHTS AND LADIES ENJOY THEMSELVES

It is estimated that over 2500 people, including members and their families and friends of the Knights of Columbus, visited the beautiful Genoa camp in Tyngsboro today, the occasion being the annual basket picnic conducted by the society.

A large number made the trip to the grounds early this morning, but the majority waited until 1 o'clock this afternoon when several extra cars were run to the scene of the annual event.

During the afternoon several sporting events, including a baseball game between two teams composed of young ladies were carried out. This latter event proved a decided feature and was much enjoyed by the large crowd which lined both sides of the diamond to watch the contest. Following the young ladies' game the married and single men had at it for nine innings in which several high class plays were made by players of both factions.

Refreshments were served and a concert by the Middlesex County Training school band was enjoyed. Buckley's orchestra furnished music for dancing in the evening.

Mrs. Helen Becker, wife of the condemned man is expected to arrive today to spend the last hours allowed her with her husband. Other members of Becker's family are also expected.

In the absence of Thomas Mott Osborne, warden of Sing Sing, who is opposed to capital punishment, Deputy Warden Johnson will have charge of the execution of Becker and Samuel Haynes, a negro, who will probably be electrocuted a few minutes before Becker.

I virtually arrived at my decision Tuesday night," said Justice Ford, "but spent many hours since then thinking and arranging the opinion."

BECKER BEARING UP WELL

OSSINING, N. Y., July 29.—Charles

WILL SEE MRS. BECKER

ALBANY, N. Y., July 29.—Governor Whitman left Albany early today by automobile for Camp Whitman, near Flushing, to review the state troops there. Before leaving Gov. Whitman received a telegraphic message from Mrs. Becker asking for an interview. He replied that he was compelled to leave Albany but that he would receive Mrs. Becker on his return, which will be about half past six this evening.

HOPES RESTS WITH WHITMAN

NEW YORK, July 29.—The sole hope of saving Charles Becker from dying in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison tomorrow morning lies in Gov. Whitman. Counsel for the condemned man announced today that they had abandoned the idea of appealing to Judge Hogan of the court of appeals at Syracuse for a stay of execution.

DECLARATION OF INNOCENCE

NEW YORK, July 29.—Martin T. Manton, of counsel for Becker, said today:

"There is absolutely no truth in the statement that Becker offered to plead guilty to murder in the second degree or any other degree, so far as I know. Certainly, no such offer was made while I was his counsel. Becker will go to the chair with a dying declaration of innocence."

LATE WAR NEWS

Continued

British ships have fallen victims to the under-sea commerce raiders.

The situation in the near east remains apparently unchanged so far as any departure from neutrality is concerned, but the entente allies already are showing considerable irritation over Bulgaria's successful negotiations with Turkey and they soon may transfer their displeasure to Romania which is reported to be ready to hit the embargo on the export of grain, thereby supplying the central powers with a huge accession of food supplies.

The Lion, according to previous reports, took part in a naval battle in the North sea on the 24th of January.

Reports that she had been disabled were denied by the British admiralty.

The Agamemnon would appear to have been active in the Dardanelles fighting in February of this year. In March she was damaged by the Turkish fire from the land forts.

FUNERALS

THIRDEAU—The funeral of Mrs. Harry Doherty Thibaut took place this morning from her home, 362 Lincoln st.

High mass of requiem was celebrated at the Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock. Rev. T. Franklin Wood, O. M. I. Seated in the sanctuary were Very Rev. T. Wade-Smith, O. M. I.; Lowell; Rev. B. J. McKenna, O. M. I.; Rev. S. McDunn, O. M. I.; Tawksbury; Rev. D. S. Flanagan, O. M. I.; Ottawa, Rev. J. Roche, O. M. I.; Rev. P. J. Fletcher, O. M. I.; Rev. J. M. O'Brien, O. M. I.; Lowell; Rev. William F. Finnigan, Marlboro and Rev. F. Donerty, O. M. I., of Ottawa, Ont., brother of deceased. The bearers were McCann, J. J.; McCullough, M. Herbert; J. Harrington, Milford. There were beautiful floral offerings from the following: Caesar Migan store, No. 5 Silesia mill, employees of U. S. Cartridge Co., Misses Corkery, Mary Flynn, Mr. and Mrs. Carrigan and family, Citizens-Americans club, Anna McKinnon, Thibaut family, and Mrs. J. McCann, Harrington. Burial was in the family lot in St. Joseph's cemetery, where the committal services were read by Rev. T. Franklin Wood, O. M. I. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertakers, Amedee Archambault & Sons.

Spirited Fighting

Going into details, the latest Russian report recites the favorable outcome of advance guard engagements near Mitau, in Courland, and says the Germans are continuing their efforts to cross the Narow river at a point near Novgorod north of Warsaw. The line on the left bank of the Narow, from Ostrodenka to the river Prut, has seen spirited fighting, but remains unchanged, and to the right of the Narow German attacks have been repulsed.

1500 Germans Captured

Between the Vierze and the Bug there has been stubborn fighting, in which the Russians claim success and the capture of 1500 German soldiers.

At Grubachow, a point close to the Galician frontier, north of Lemberg, the Germans made determined attempts to advance, but were driven back, according to the Russian war office, and a little further to the south at Sokal, the Russians declare they have begun a successful offensive movement. Desperate fighting is still going on at this point.

The French official statement of today reports minor activity but no fighting of any importance, while the latest Italian announcement says the progress of the Italian forces on the Cane plateau has been satisfactory and that they have been successful in minor encounters.

Coal Needed by Allies

Minister of Munitions Lloyd-George, addressing a meeting of coal operators in London today, laid particular emphasis upon the need of coal for the successful conduct of the war. He declared that events in the east meant that a larger share than ever of the burden of the struggle was to be cast upon the shoulders of Great Britain and that the country must pay the price of victory if it meant to be victorious.

III Conference

The German imperial chancellor, who returned to the capital yesterday from army headquarters, where he saw Emperor William, is in conference today with James W. Gerard, the American ambassador.

LOWELL BOYS IN WAR

Bugler William Allette, son of Delphus Allette of 179 Perkins street, this city, is now in the French trenches fighting in the great European war with the Canadian regiment. With him is another Lowell boy, Eddie Chasse.

The father of Bugler Allette received a letter yesterday from his son, stating he was enjoying the best of health. The letter was dated July 11 and was sent from the former camp of the Canadian regiment known as East Sandling Camp, England. The young man states he is about to leave England for France, where he says upon the receipt of this letter he will be in the trenches. The young soldier, who by the way, is but 19 years of age, states life at camp is great as compared to what is awaiting the soldiers in the trenches. He says, however, he is not afraid to face death, and he has made arrangements for his father to recover a pension in case of his death occurring on the battlefield.

Bugler Allette, speaking about his comrade from Lowell, Eddie Chasse, says he is also in good health and is longing to be on the battlefield. He promises his father to write him as much detail about the war as is permissible from the trenches, and wishes to be remembered to his Lowell friends

Bugler Allette is a member of the 22d F. C. regiment. A company, platoon 4, fifth infantry brigade, Second division.

Your Boys and Girls

The luncheon to be carried to the kiddies' picnic, presents problems that tax many a mother's brain. Little individual jars of jams and jellies are invaluable in planning for the luncheon. So are crackers and wafers of every sort—sweet graham, ginger snaps, oatmeal crackers, butter thins, five o'clock tea biscuit, and a host of others. Bottled foods are the most convenient; olives, figs, peanut butter, lunch tongue, deviled ham, tuna fish, sardines—all can be packed into the basket as they come or may be used for tasty sandwiches.

As a business the child learns that the salts are. The final issue is that a large number of self-willed, unhearable young men and women go out into the world, either to get beaten into a decent shape by the kicks and blows of their fellows, or else to become soured and spoiled by general idleness.

To teach the child not to give way to temptation the mother must control her own. She must be gentle and firm as a good trained nurse with a sick patient, she must study both the disease and the cure. Thus she can easily control the child's environment so that talent and genius are not appeal to your aesthetic sense, bunnies or a procession from Noah's ark to please his lordship.

Truthfulness is so essential a virtue and the habit of lying is so dangerous, and one which in so many ways affects all the details of human life, that we cannot be too much on our guard against the first sign of practicality. Education is a matter of height, the presence of others are more valuable than the correctness.

It is a commonplace truth, but one that with justice and kindness we like to make almost anything we like pink silk and the eyes are glittering pink glass beads.

If these bead eyes are objectionable for a particularly inquisitive baby, they may easily be omitted and embroidered with a white cross. The beads should be quilted carefully by hand over the softest of fillings. If the cat does not appeal to your aesthetic sense, bunnies or a procession from Noah's ark to please his lordship.

children. They will be frank and open if they are encouraged to be confiding. They will not seek to make excuses for their faults, if they know that it grieves their parents, and that this will be the worst consequence of their naughtiness.

And lastly, they should be especially careful never to scold them for unintentional faults.

As I look about among my acquaintances I can see that in some households the absence of the mother, even for a day, would result in a great deal of irregularity in the conduct of the children, to say the least. And in other homes almost any adult in charge would find the children going on about their games and other affairs as though nothing unusual had occurred.

The difference between these two types of homes is all in the viewpoint of the parents. In one case the parents rule with a high hand and the feelings of restraint is constantly with the children, while in the other, when the parents are away, is sure to find a strong tendency among the children to break out. For the children then feel that they will not be dealt with as severely for any breach of discipline, and they take advantage of the removal of the usual restraint.

The primer for the general behavior of children contains rules so obvious that the average mother can only repeat the repetitions. To talk in a child's presence of his gifts or缺点 is to pave the way for vanity and arrogance. The slightest impertinence superiors should be promptly and firmly checked.

He must take off his hat to his elders, but they men or women or girls too young to think him old. He must never remain seated when an old person is standing, or be other than helpful, willing and gracious with age. It is no longer the fashion to say "Yes Ma'm" when the mother or grandmother speaks, but the reply may still be as恭敬 as "Yes, ma'am." "Yes, grandmother" is the way the reply should be put, and when a woman is introduced her name should be respectfully repeated as the child gives his hand.

Milady's Boudoir

For a Beautiful Foot

The woman who possesses a beautiful foot has a right to be proud of it, for foot beauty is rare among civilized folks. The feet should be bathed in hot water at night and dipped in cold water in the morning, to keep the flesh firm and resistant. Feet bathed only in hot water are apt to be soft and fubby and easily acquire corns and callous flesh. Once a week rub the sole of the foot with half a lemon. Then rub a little vaseline into the skin with the palm of the hand.

Callous places should be kept down with a bit of vaseline or a manicure file, but the foot treated like the nails of the fingers, a bleach being applied with orange stick under the rounded ends of the nails and the cuticle being pushed back carefully to preserve the curve at the base of the nail.

The toes may be massaged at the tips to keep them tapering and supple, and the nail may be treated like the nails of the fingers, a bleach being applied with orange stick under the rounded ends of the nails and the cuticle being pushed back carefully to preserve the curve at the base of the nail.

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

THE PROGRESSIVE FLOP

Ostensibly the progressive party in this state is to hold itself in existence so to speak for another year by catching on to the coat tails of the prohibition party which, we presume, will have no objection. It is the intention to have the progressives endorse the prohibition candidate for governor and support him in preference to any of the other candidates. While that may serve the purpose of preserving the party as a separate entity until next year, yet it shows that as a political organization it is on the verge of dissolution.

We do not believe that any large proportion of the 127,000 voters who supported Charles Sumner Bird in 1912 will take kindly to this proposition. Rather will they support the candidates of their choice in the democratic and republican parties feeling that in doing otherwise they would only be throwing away their votes. This large body of voters will find the democratic platform more in accord with their political principles than that of the republican party. Much, however, will depend upon the party platforms adopted and the tickets nominated by the two great parties.

It remains to be seen what the progressives will do in the next national campaign, but Col. Roosevelt at San Francisco recently announced that Gov. Johnson of California would be the next president of the United States. The colonel may not have meant what he said, but he felt he should pay some high tribute to Governor Johnson, one of the men who sacrificed most in lining up with Roosevelt at the republican convention in which the party went to pieces.

VERY INDISCREET TALK

The German alliance is doing some very foolish talking in reference to the relations between this country and Germany. Whatever these relations are or may be, the instigator of the trouble was Germany. German diplomacy broke up the triple alliance, causing Italy to side with the allies. It caused France to make a treaty with Russia; England a treaty with both those nations, and Japan a treaty with England. Germany has not a friend among the European powers except Sweden, which hates Russia and Turkey. Now the German diplomats are alienating the friendship of the United States, the only remaining great nation among the neutrals.

The leaders of the German alliance in this country dub President Wilson as the tool of Wall street. One of them has made the statement that war between the United States and Germany is practically certain and that "it behoves us" to stand together. That is a very indiscreet position for these gentlemen to take, for as American citizens, they have sworn allegiance to the United States. If they do anything to indicate that they are still in sympathy with Germany and ready to support her in a conflict with the United States, they will get themselves into serious trouble. The adopted citizen is not expected to relinquish his sworn allegiance to his adopted country just because his mother country happens to be in distress.

SPECIAL SESSION PROBABLE

It is now practically certain that President Wilson will call an extra session of congress this fall to act upon various matters of vital interest to the nation. In the first place the question of strengthening our coast defenses and getting the army and navy ready for emergencies will require action by congress that should not be delayed. President Wilson has called for estimates from the various departments by Sept. 1 which is two months earlier than usual. While this does not positively indicate the president's intention to call a special session of congress, still it shows that he is getting ready for it in case such a course may be necessary. In view of the crisis with Germany it is quite likely that a special session will be called. Congressman Rogers who is making a tour of his district, meeting his rural constituents at the town post offices, says he would not be surprised to hear at any moment that the president had issued a call for a special session. The congressman feels that there is an exigency to justify it and one to which the president is fully alive.

WALSH VS. McCALL

The Berkshire Eagle of Pittsfield sizes up the political situation as between the two great parties in this state as follows:

"But we believe that in the case of Gov. Walsh there is a large sense of party loyalty and desire to help. No other man in the party looks anywhere near him as a candidate. The Wilson appeal is going to be a strong one in the campaign. No democrat aside from Col. Wilson can offer the chance of defeating McCall, who is quite likely to be nominated by the republicans. From here it looks much like the alienation of one year ago with a strong progressive ticket absent. Under these conditions the republicans, with a narrow majority in the state of 50,000, ought to be in a position to give the opposition a hard fight."

Should Walsh be the democratic standard bearer as he undoubtedly will be and McCall his opponent, the Americans on the seas, rather than stir up international strife or make any grandstand play to the jingoes.

PRESIDENT NOT BLUFFING

Let no nation assume that President Wilson is bluffing when he says he will stand for the freedom of the seas at any cost. He means what he says and further, he will be backed up in that stand by the entire people of this country. When it comes to a question of maintaining American rights against encroachment by foreign powers there is but one political party in this country and that is made up of the sovereign people.

MR. BRYAN

Mr. Bryan is back at the only job for which he is adapted by nature—making money on the lecture platform. Some writers have referred to him as politically dead. As a candidate yes but as a force operating on public opinion on political questions, no. It is premature to pronounce a man so very active and valuable as dead politically or otherwise.

THE OUTBREAK IN HAITI

That bloody revolutionary outbreak at Port Au Prince, Haiti, was after all only what was to be expected as a result of the heartless execution of 160 political prisoners including former President Orestes Zamor by order of General Oscar.

That piece of cruelty aroused the populace to a state of rage in which their fury knew no bounds. They sought out General Oscar and riddled him with bullets; then they dragged President Guillaume from the French legation in which he had taken refuge and shot him to death. The brutality of the mob was frightful, but it was excited by the tragic events of the preceding day. The cold-blooded execution of 160 prisoners for political offences was a crime for which the mob made the perpetrators pay with their lives. This is a case in which the United States should intervene at once to put an end to the reign of terror and prevent further slaughter.

WATCHFUL WAITING

"Wilson waits for details," says a headline. Watchfully waiting for details seems to be about all he does do, —Portland Express.

Now brother do not be wilfully unfair. What would you have him do? Rush the country into war with Germany or go out a la Roosevelt to stir up the militarist spirit. He has not intervened in Mexico and in that he has exercised good judgment. Unless we are greatly mistaken the consensus of opinion in this country today is that the president has met every requirement of his office with a degree of ability not excelled by that of any president since Lincoln. Our Portland friend might as well get into the Wilson procession without any further "watchful waiting."

BECKER MUST DIE

Lieut Becker, formerly of the New York police department, has been twice convicted of the complicity in the murder of Rosenthal, a man who threatened to reveal some police graft which would implicate Becker.

His last legal resort has failed to secure a new trial or a further stay of execution. There is no question as to the fairness of his trial and conviction, and no good reason to urge a plea for mercy.

It would seem, therefore, that there is little or no ground to justify any arrest of judgment. The law should take its course in his case as well as in those of the men who became his dupes.

DEMAND BY RAILROADS

The railroads of this country ask the government to pay them the sum of $10,880,000 more for carrying the mails than is paid at present as a result of the increase in weight and car space resulting from the parcels post. This service is very valuable to the public and must naturally be paid for from some source. It is reasonable to assume that it will take some time for the government and the railroads to reach an equitable adjustment of the expense. The parcel post system is growing, not only in the number of packages, but in the weight thereof, so that the increased burden has fallen upon the railroads without any corresponding increase in expense.

THE SLAVS STRIKE HARD

The announcement that Germany has lost 500,000 men in the enveloping movement by which the kaiser attempted to capture the entire Russian army, shows that in all probability the Germans undertook much more than they could accomplish. If the report be true, then the Teutons have sustained the greatest reverse inflicted upon any army since the opening of the war. The attempt to bag the whole field army of Russia was a bold undertaking but so far as appears at this writing it is not a success and will not be a success.

THE NOTE PRAISED

Every newspaper that has commented upon President Wilson's note to Germany with the exception of those of pronounced German sympathies, has praised the document as presenting the American side of the case with clearness, firmness and fairness. That is all that could be expected from a sincere and patriotic man like President Wilson, whose sole aim is to uphold the rights of

JOE HOUSER RULED ROOST

PITCHED MAGNIFICENTLY AND HATTED GORGEOUSLY AGAINST PORTLAND TEAM

Hugh Duffy, who 'way back in the '60's, on one memorable occasion while wearing a Lowell uniform at the old River street grounds, knocked so many home runs over the left field fence into the river that it got clogged up and backed into the mill sluice-ways, making it necessary to dredge the river-bed, in order that Lowell's great cotton industry could continue in operation, was at Spalding park this afternoon with his Portland team.

The fact that Duffy was there was sufficient to draw a crowd irrespective of the fact that he had a good drawing card with him.

Just 25 years ago today the old Sun headed its baseball column with: "Duffy is a jewel," and like all real jewels he has not lost his luster in nearly 30 years, and while his management participates in the game actively, he hasn't forgotten the art of getting on the coach-line and showing the younger generation how to perform.

Twenty-eight years ago, Portland led the league on this particular day of the year with a well nigh a close second; today they're quite a spic-and-span bunch, but we're on the way upward, and will get the first division or bust.

It was Ladies' day and the fair sex was well and so charmingly represented as to make the fellow who painted the sign—Vol. No. on Woman Suffrage on the left field fence feel like a low down piker.

If ever a pitcher really won his own game, in this or any other old league, that gentleman was Joe Houser, Lowell's star slab artist. Last Saturday, when he made his last appearance prior to yesterday, he broke the ice at Manchester by winning the first game of the season from Klemmer's pets, and with four times at bat collecting two doubles, a single and a homer.

Yesterday he was there again and with three times at bat smashed the first and all three sacker so that he has a perfect hit average in two games and seven times at bat, which even when Duffy used to hang them around on the old River street grounds, was going some. Joe allowed only four hits and passed but two batters. In the third he gave Mayberry a only pass of the game and proceeded to strike out the next three batters in succession. By means of his three banger in the seventh he scored Lowell's winning run.

Moore was on the mound for Portland and did ordinarily well. In the second he got into a hole and got out of it, for while Houser got two hits and two passes in this inning the home team failed to score. Both teams had something on the ball, particularly Houser, whose benders were beautiful to behold and had them reaching in all directions for them.

Kitty Keeler held the indicator. After appearing after two weeks' stay in the city, she joined the team. Bobbie Keeler, who received a foul tip down in Maine last week that tightened up the rubber in his neck, forcing him to lay off, saw the game from the press box.

Clements opened the game and hit a fly to Bowcock. Sweatt hit to Dee and Bowcock figured in the play and died at first. Buras hit down the line to Bowcock and closed the inning. After Swaine had fanned out, Moore passed Fahey. Stimpson hit to Clancy and was cut at first. Then Barrows walked but Ahearn was an easy out. Two flies to Bowcock and a grounder to Dee settled Portland in the second, while Houser looked dangerous for a moment with three on base and two out, as the result of two scratch hits and two bases on balls. Dee, who made the first hit with one out, was called off by Moore, who certainly had seen that ball go to first. Fahey fanned Moore and Clements in the third still on. After Mayberry had walked in the third, Houser, Moore and Clements fanned.

Bowcock arrived at third and was then shut off by a clever ruse of Ahearn's. Sweatt tried to Barrows, but Dowell got the belated single, but in his anxiety to make a double, Fahey threw bid to first and Burns made second. Then Farrell hit to Bowcock, and there were men on first and third. Farrell started to second to draw the throw for a double steal, but when he tried to throw the second, he shot the ball to Houser, who promptly whipped the spider over to Fahey, getting Buras off third. He was the third out.

Lowell scored one large run in the third. Stimpson opened the inning with a single to centre, Barrows with a triple to right, Mayberry dropped a ball and both men trotted to their respective sacks. Ahearn bunted to Moore and was out at first though the runners advanced. Estes hit to Mayberry, who threw Stimpson out at the plate. Shorty Dee was there with his second hit and Barrows scored. Dee was then forced out at second. Lowell with one out in the fourth was doubled up after Houser had singled, Clancy, Sweatt and Mayberry doing the damage.

Clancy after two vain swings in the fifth hit to Bowcock. Mayberry hit to Dee and was the second out. Houser became real vexed over a strike called and would not talk about it, after he had popped a fly to Estes. Meanwhile, Manager Duffy and Catcher Ahearn were exchanging compliments from their respective benches. In Lowell's half, Stimpson hit to Dowell and was out. Barrows, the third best batter in the league, fanned out. Ahearn walked a fly ball high into the atmosphere but Farrell was under it when it came down.

In the sixth, Moore was an easy out to Bowcock and then Pete Clements came across with Portland's first hit in the game, a single to left field. Pete Moore seemed to have a mile, but he dropped the ball. A passed ball sent Pete to third. Fahey made a great stop of Sweatt's angry grounder and threw home, getting Pete at the plate. Burns lined one at Estes and closed the inning. Sweatt took Estes' line drive and Bill was out. He also took care of Dee's grounder while Bowcock fanned him.

Then came the more or less lucky seventh and there was something doing on both sides. Dowell produced a dandy three base hit into deep right field. Farrell, the second best batter in the league, proved his claim to the title by assistance out a single to right that scored Bowcock and incidentally put on the score. Fahey was forced on Clancy's grounder. Houser threw to first, unexpectedly getting Clancy off the base. Clancy made them go some to put him out for Estes. Ahearn, Dee and Bowcock figured in the play and died at first. Burns hit to Bowcock tomorrow.

BASEBALL POOL

Lawrence Has First National Game Pool Case—Fine Promoters

LAWRENCE, July 29.—Charged with promoting lottery in the form of a baseball pool, the first arrests here for such an offense were John C. Shorey, an optician; Joseph Parent, a milk operator; Howard Delmore, a moving picture machine operator; and Fred Hutchins, a milk dealer's employee; as alleged, were each fined $10 when arraigned in district court Wednesday.

The men were called into court on complaint made by James Burns on which he did not yet get but $7 of $19 due him, but he was a pool player. The police claimed that the men formed the pool and Delmore and Hutchins agent, the pool first being formed on a 10-cent basis, later being increased to 25 cents a ticket. The evidence showed the pool was operated by about 20 agents which was later decreased in number. The police stated it was hard to find out who had charge.

The court learned he had given a small fine because there was but little involved. However, he added, there was a heavy fine for such pools.

Inspector Vose stated the pooling was done on the sidewalk and about the city in different places. One or two claimed they got out of the pool as it progressed. The evidence showed Parent was the treasurer. Hutchins stated $1.20 was the most he got for proceeds and week he was in it.

In the pool as first started there were 32 different individuals, as stated, and 512 different combinations. Two cents on the 10 cent tickets and 5 cents on the 25 cent tickets was what the evidence showed was given the agents for selling.

The sale which caused the trouble was on June 23, when the complainant got $19, $15 on the combination and $4 on the day prize, as claimed.

Attorney C. H. Rogers represented two of the defendants.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The rival baseball factions of Hoxford square will soon get together and settle the question of supremacy on a artificial diamond. The Seniors and Juniors are the names they travel under and every summer they are supposed to play their games the team winning the first two are the recognized champs of the square. Last year only two games were played, each game of warriors cupping a win. Besides being captain of the Ponies, Tom Kelly handles the reins of the Hoxford Seniors while Eddie Kelly directs the Juniors. All plans are completed and any time the Seniors are ready to play will visit the Seniors, the sooner the better for the Seniors are out for blood and state they will win the first two games, while the other side is as equally confident.

Manager Chas. Farrell of the Woodbine team would like to hear from the Kimball System in regard to a return game which was promised them. The first game between these two teams resulted in a tie and the Kimball System has promised a return game which is anxiously awaited. The Woodbines are also anxious to meet the Lawrence Mfg. Co. and the South Ends at an early date.

The Lawrence Mfg. Co. defeated the Woodbines on the Aiken street grounds by the score of 5 to 4 in 12 innings and the latter team is confident that they can reverse this defeat. The South Ends is the only team having a good record over the Woodbines and Manager Farrell wishes to square accounts with the South common team by a return match at the South common soon. The Woodbines is greatly strengthened by the arrival of John and Jim Manning and Parker Mills.

Send all communications to 119 Cabot street.

The manager of the Colburn A. C. would like to meet the manager of the Elks in front of this office at 8 o'clock Thursday evening. Any manager wishing to arrange games for following dates take notice.

DIAMOND DAZZLES

Joe Houser is the one best bet among the N. E. league twirlers.

Fitchburg will play here Saturday, Lowell going to Fitchburg tomorrow.

Seven hits with a total of 14 in seven times at bat is holding them up some.

You wouldn't see a better game at Fenway park than that of yesterday, and it cost less to see it.

Arthur Mayhew is back in baseball. He has signed on with the New Haven team of the Colonial league.

It made no difference to Houser where they stood in the batting list, he made them all look foolish at times.

Rennie Bowcock was a very busy man yesterday. Everybody took a crack at him, but Rennie was there for 11 chances without an error.

Bobby Keeler received a foul tip in the neck at Lewiston last week and he got it in the neck, both literally and figuratively, for he has been unable to play ever since.

Shorty Dee was very much in evidence yesterday. He made two hits, one of which netted one of Lowell's two runs. Thus the kids must can that "Pop Fly King" stuff for the present.

Here's hoping that Hugh Duffy dropped in to see Jim Cudworth, talks over old times for a moment for in the old days when Duffy was on the way up he had no more sincere brother than Cudworth.

Walter Ahearn is quite stiff in the ankle but he has been able to resist the temptation to go in yesterday and he is there with the goods. He laid a bunt in the third inning that he would have turned into a hit had he been able to make the pedals move faster.

Never was a game pulled off with less kicking or layaway. Rennie Bowcock and the coach, Fred, Hugh and Walter Ahearn had a few ashlers at each other, but not of sufficient moment to ruffle the tranquility of the game. It was real behavior all round for a ladies' day.

Perhaps Clancy didn't make them go home to get him when Houser caught up off first in the seventh. Houser threw to Estes and Clancy started for second. Then Bill and Shorty classed him back and forth for a minute. Ahearn with mitt protected and right foot gallantly down to rest and got into the game and finally Bowcock, who had been a keen observer, took a hand and he finally made the putout.

Lee Magee and George Stovall and Rennie Kauf mixed it up with Unsworth at Kansas City yesterday but they were still in the early stages of civilization. No one ever hears of such conduct in the enlightened N.

E. league except when some member of the bad in baseball uniform gets himself and thinks he has a gallery that likes that conduct.

Burns was choked off from a run by a heady play by Walter Ahearn in the fourth. With Burns on third, the double steal was signaled, and he started for second and when with an inch of being of the arm threw as if to second base, he however, went straight into Houser's mitt, and Joe immediately upon receiving it shot it to Fahey at third. It was done so quickly that Burns didn't have a chance to get a real start for home and didn't even have the fun of seeing them chase him back and forth for Fahey hit off third base.

Tom Arundel of Lawrence, brother of Edward L. Arundel, past president of the Lawrence baseball association, is now the manager in Canadian league. He looks to recently as he is giving splendid satisfaction. He was with the West until the league he was with disbanded July 20. He had several offers from other leagues but he liked the Canadian league offer and decided to accept it. He met Matt Lamond of this city and with him in that league and the two talked over various offers for several hours. Tom was tickled to death when Lamond gave him three of the latest Tribune. They were the first he had seen in years.—Lawrence Tribune.

PRICE ONE CENT

THE SPELLBINDER

This year in all probability there will be no state progressive ticket, and few, if any, candidates for minor offices from among the members of the Bull Moose party, and hence what will become of those 36,000 votes that were recorded for Walker in last year's state election?

There were 13,000 enrolled progressives last year, but with a clear-cut partisan contest between Governor Walsh and Hon. Samuel McCall in the state election, 36,000 votes were cast for the candidate of the progressive party for governor, a fact that would indicate that there were at that time 36,000 straight-faced, conscientious progressive party voters in Massachusetts who stuck to a hopeless cause on principle.

And how those 36,000 are going to vote in the coming state election is what is bothering the candidates, managers and spellbinders of both parties throughout the commonwealth.

Some time ago the progressive state organization sent out word that there would probably be no state ticket this fall but called upon all city and town committees of the party to hold together and preserve their identity until 1916, when a presidential campaign will be due. Thus, the secretary of state has been notified by the secretaries of the local committees that they will have committee tickets on the ballots, though it is extremely doubtful if any other progressives will appear as candidates except in remote cases where there will be candidates nominally, but practically to help out a candidate of one of the other parties, as can be and is often done.

It was argued in the progressive state committee some time ago that the only way in which the progressives could return to the republican party with consistency would be by the nomination on the part of the republicans of Hon. Charles S. Bird for governor. This was strongly advocated before the state committee by A. S. Goldman, Esq., of this city, secretary of the local progressive city committee, and a pronounced progressive, and by Hon. Joseph Walker, himself, but there was nothing doing in that line, and the contest has narrowed down to a straight party fight between Governor Walsh and in all probability Hon. Samuel McCall, who appears to have the pole on Hon. Grafton Cushing; and to which of the two are the progressives going to lend their support?

In Lowell, the sentiment among prominent progressives is for Walsh. Mr. Goldman, when seen by the writer, after impressing the latter with the fact that he was speaking only as an individual, and not as secretary of the city committee, said: "I shall vote for Governor Walsh, for I believe that he more nearly represents the principles advanced by the progressive party than either of the gentlemen now before the public as the republican candidates for governor. But I speak only for myself." And there are others who believe as does Mr. Goldman, I have no authority for making the statement, but am of the opinion that Charles H. Hobson and Daniel Cosgrove will vote for Governor Walsh in preference to either Mr. McCall or Mr. Cushing. A well known member of the Bull Moose party, when asked by the writer as to the percentage of progressives who would support Governor Walsh, replied that the democratic candidate would get over 20,000 votes from the third party. "Last year," he said, "there were 255 city and town committees and they are going to do some effective work in this campaign even if there is to be no party ticket, and their work to a large extent will be in favor of the democratic candidate. Furthermore, I believe that next year the only salvation of the republican party will be to nominate Hon. Theodore Roosevelt for president. Otherwise, Roosevelt cannot hope to defeat President Wilson for another term."

Conditions Locally

In the local contests a great effort will be made by the candidates of both parties to get the progressive vote, and in this respect great hopes are held out to the democratic candidates for senator and representative. During the past few years the appearance of the progressive candidates in a senatorial or representational field has meant democratic success as the progressives drew largely from the republican ranks. In the case of Daniel Cosgrove for Lieutenant governor, and in the 14th district of Michael A. Lee for representative, two notable exceptions were evidenced. Mr. Cosgrove received a large democratic vote while the democratic vote accorded Mr. Lee, while small, was just sufficient to defeat Rep. Brennan, the democratic candidate. In the senate and legislature this year, nothing has been done that would attract the progressives back to the republican party. The representatives of the latter party have stood consistently for stand-pat legislation at all times, and the few progressives who found their way to Peacock Hill have stood with the democrats. On this account it is assumed that progressives generally when voting for the democratic candidate at the head of the ticket will go down the line and support the democratic candidates for the senate and house. Such being the case, the democrats have great hopes of electing more candidates than ever. Locally, there will be no progressive candidates for senator in either of the districts in which Lowell plays a part. In the seventh, Henry P. Dunn, at present has trifling opposition in his own party from one Rep. Burke of Lynn, who it is said may yet withdraw, while in the eighth district it looks like a clearly defined contest between James P. Dunnigan of North Chelmsford, as the democratic hope, and Senator Marchand, the republican incumbent, seeking another term.

There will be no progressive candidate in the 14th representative district this fall, leaving the field clear to former Rep. Brennan, who was defeated for a second term by Rep. Colburn, who in turn is seeking a second term. Rep. Brennan was defeated last year by only 54 votes. Michael A. Lee, a former democrat and a well known labor official, received 65 votes on election day, and those 54 were just enough to defeat Rep. Brennan. If the 65 who supported Mr. Lee did so because of his affiliation to the cause of labor, then to be consistent they must support Mr. Brennan against Rep. Colburn for the former when in office supported labor legislation, while the latter opposed it. If they were consistent progressives then they should support Mr. Brennan, who was opposed to the stand-pat legislation favored by Rep. Colburn as a member of the republican party, and opposed by the progressives generally.

In the ward eight district, also, there will be no representative candidate on the progressive ticket and as the ward is strongly republican the fight will be among republicans exclusively, though from all indications the democrats will take a hand in the caucus contest in this district.

While the demmies have an opportunity to raise ructions with the republicans in some of the caucus fights, the progressives will have the fun on election day.

Name Old Story

At Tuesday's meeting of the municipal council, the Jitney bus men complained that they couldn't live up to the present jitney ordinance because they could not get any local bonding company to supply bonds that will indemnify the public, and as result the mayor is to notify the police not to enforce the ordinance for the present in order that the municipal council may look up the Jitney conditions in other cities.

It's the same old story: the cemetery fund incident of a year ago; the water department loan of last year; the Pawtucket bridge muddle, the Keeney matter, the high school proposition and now the Jitney bus ordinance, a series of tangles despite the fact that three members of the municipal council are also members of the bar. Why didn't learned commissioners look up the Jitney laws of other places before they enacted a law of their own which now they find they cannot enforce with justice?

"Bawling Out" the Innocent

A correspondent writes that persons calling at the police station to make complaints, or seeking information are treated "like criminals" by the gentlemen at headquarters. They are yelled at and accorded scant courtesy, he says. A similar complaint was received some time ago and duly noted, but of late we were of the opinion that things had changed at police headquarters and hence are surprised at this recent complaint. Report hath it that the superior officers and headquarters men and the big chief are now on terms of real intimacy and are actually calling each other by their first names, while a patrolman who neglects to salute and speak to his superior is no longer brought upon the carpet. It doesn't seem probable with such harmony prevailing at headquarters that visitors would have any complaint to make.

Chelmsford Street Bridge Matter

Elsewhere in this column reference is made to the series of blunders made by the administration on important matters involving in a majority of cases the spending of money. It would also appear that the council has had its usual experience relative to the Chelmsford street bridge and an effort apparently is being made to place the responsibility on the shoulders of the city engineer who for the past week or more has been far from the maddening administration's more or less ignoble strife, enjoying his vacation, and from all accounts blissfully ignorant of the trouble his absence has caused. But at Saturday's hearing the attorney for the Boston & Maine had something to stale relative to the city's position in the matter which has nothing to do with the city engineer. The railroad attorney made the claim that the county commissioners could not take action on the city's petition because it had been filed too late, four hearings having been held on the matter. Furthermore he claimed that the city has no ground for its petition under part 1, section 23, chapter 463 of the acts of 1906, which reads as follows:

"Section 23. If a public way and a railroad cross each other, and the road of aldermen of the city or the selectmen of the town in which the crossing is situated, or the directors of the railroads or corporations owning tracks on the said way, or of the opinion that it is necessary for the safety or convenience of the public that an alteration which does not involve the abolition of a crossing, or the approaches thereto, or in connection with the crossing, the railroad or way, or in connection with the crossing, they shall apply to the county commissioners, or, if the crossing is situated in the city of Boston, to the board of railroad commissioners, after public notice, hear all parties concerned, and, if they decide that such alteration is necessary, shall prescribe the manner and limits in which it shall be made, and shall forthwith certify their decision to the parties and to said board. RUSSIAN REPORT

Germans Repulsed on Several Points With Heavy Losses

PETROGRAD, July 29, via London, July 29, 5:55 a. m.—The following official statement was issued today at the headquarters of the general staff:

"West and south of Mitau Monday advance guard engagements resulted to our advantage. The enemy advancing from Poniatowsk was stopped by our rear guards near the village of Soubotch where our infantry inflicted heavy losses."

"On the Narew front there has been violent artillery fire. Near Novgorod the enemy continued his efforts to cross the river. Near the mouth of the river Skwa the enemy on Tuesday succeeded in occupying part of our trenches on the left bank of the river but counter-attacks threw him back.

"On the left bank of the Narew from Ostrolenka to the river Prut there has been a spirited combat but the line on this front is unchanged. To the right of the Narew the enemy took the offensive against our troops attempting to counter-attack north of Serock. Near the village of Budy (southeast of Pultsk) we repulsed six attacks."

"On the left bank of the Vistula and between the Vistula and the Vieprz, there have been no important changes.

"Between the Vieprz and the Bug a

GOVERNOR AGREES TO A CONFERENCE

Wife of Condemned Man Appeals to Executive to Save Husband—Justice Ford Denies Motion for New Trial

ALBANY, N. Y., July 29.—Gov. Whitman agreed over the long distance telephone at 3 o'clock today to meet Mrs. Becker and John B. Johnson, of Becker's counsel at the Nelson house, Poughkeepsie, at 6 o'clock this evening. Mrs. Becker and Mr. Johnson will leave here on the 3:37 o'clock train.

APPEAL TO GOVERNOR

ALBANY, N. Y., July 29.—Mrs. Charles Becker arrived here at 3:30 today to make a final plea to Gov. Whitman for her husband's life. She was accompanied by John B. Johnson of Becker's counsel. Mrs. Becker did not learn until after her arrival of the governor's departure from the city. She said her plans were uncertain.

Shortly before Mrs. Becker's arrival the public entrance to the executive chamber in the capitol was closed and a plain clothes man placed on guard. An unconfirmed rumor declared that the authorities had learned that some New York gunmen had arrived in Albany. Another report stated that the governor would return to Albany early in the afternoon and would receive Mrs. Becker immediately on his return.

After a conversation with William Orr, Gov. Whitman's private secretary, over the telephone, Mrs. Becker and Johnson went to a hotel. It was learned that the governor had notified Becker's counsel in New York that he would be out of town during the day but the message failed to reach Mrs. Becker before her departure for Albany.

According to Mr. Manton, Mr. Whitman had in his possession at the Becker trial an erroneous report to the effect that Becker's first wife died under suspicious circumstances. In appealing to the governor, Mr. Manton said, Mrs. Becker will show that the first Mrs. Becker really died after a lingering illness of tuberculosis.

Mr. Manton announced today that he and Mr. Cockran had received a number of letters, one of which confirmed his opinion that he had been followed for several days by a man who met him on the street a few days ago, seized his arm and threatened to kill him if Becker was not electrocuted.

BERLIN REPORTS DO NOT DENY GERMANS CHECKED

Teutons Are Hurled Back Across the Dniester—Advance East of Narew River—1500 Germans Captured Between Vieprz and Bug

LONDON, July 29, 11:55 a. m.—Expect whether the vast operations between the Bug and the Vistula rivers is the crisis of the battle or only a pause to allow one side or the other to draw breath or to re-arrange its forces.

German Reoccupation Trenches Along the western front comparative quiet prevails with Berlin claiming and Paris admitting the re-occupation of trenches in the Souchez sector.

Rome explains the hull along the Isonzo river front on the ground that the Italians are engaged in organizing and securing the positions which they

Funeral of Fr. Dolan

VENERABLE PRIEST LAID AT REST IN ST. PATRICK'S CEMETERY THIS AFTERNOON

The funeral of Rev. Michael Dolan, P. R. formerly of this city, and one of the oldest edermenies of the archdiocese, who passed away at the Our Lady Help of Christians church rectory, Newton, Mass., Monday, took place this morning with impressive services in the church he has been conducting as pastor since 1888. Burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery, Gorham street, this city, this afternoon.

At 10 o'clock this morning a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated at Our Lady Help of Christians church, the celebrant being Rev. M. T. McNamee, P. R. Brookline, assisted by Rev. Jas. T. Gilfeather, Lynn, as deacon and Rev. Daniel C. Riordan, Newton Centre, as sub-deacon. Rev. A. M. Malone, Newton, acted as master of ceremonies.

Seated in the sanctuary were William Cardinal O'Connell, Bishop J. G. Anderson, D. D., and about 150 clergymen from different parts of the archdiocese. The church was crowded to the doors and during the services all the business establishments of the parish were closed in mark of respect for one who had won the affection of the residents of Newton.

The eulogy was delivered by Cardinal O'Connell, while the mass was chanted by a choir of clergymen. At the close of the mass the cortège,

NEED COAL TOWNS

"Means Life to Us and Death to Foes," Says Lloyd George

LONDON, July 29, 2:42 p. m.—Twenty-five hundred coal operators and representatives of the miners' union packed the London Opera House today at a national conference to give impetus to the coal supply.

The chief speakers, for the government were Sir John A. Simon, secretary for home affairs, and David Lloyd-George, minister of munitions. "Coal" said the minister of munitions, "means life for us and death for our foes. Coal is everything to us, and we want more of it to win."

Referring to the recent British casualty list of 350,000 officers and men, Mr. Lloyd-George said all these were victims of German coal produced by the Westphalian miners working in co-operation with the Prussian engineer without reserve and without regulation."

The British navy which drove the German flag from the seas, the minister pointed out, owed its strength to coal. He continued:

"Events in the east, whatever they pretend, mean that we must put forth all our strength. They mean that a larger share than ever of the burden of this struggle is to be cast on the shoulders of Great Britain. Do not shrink from it. We must pay the price of victory if we mean to get it. The peril our country faces is great, the demand for coal is great, and the supply of labor has diminished. We must have more coal to win."

The miners cheered. Mr. Lloyd-George repeated and enthusiastically.

FREEDOM OF THE CITY

HIGHEST HONOR A MUNICIPALITY CAN GIVE CONFERRED BY LONDON ON PREMIER BORDEN

LONDON, July 29, 4 p. m.—The highest honor a municipality can give—the freedom of the city—was conferred by London today on Sir Robert Borden, the Canadian premier. The ceremony which took place at the Guildhall amid a downpour of rain, were attended by Premier Asquith, A. Bogar Law, secretary of the colonies and other members of the cabinet.

Premier Borden expressed deep appreciation of the honor. The action of Canada, he declared, was due—not to its government or its statesmen, but to the spirit of the Canadian people. "I have no doubt as to the issue," he added, "for the resources of the British empire are infinitely greater than are those of Germany."

Premier Borden admitted the unpreparedness of the empire, but thought there was reason for congratulation in the splendid preparations that had been made since the outbreak of the war in these islands and in the dominions over the seas.

"I wish to impress upon all within the British Isles and those in the overseas dominions," he said, "that all for which our fathers fought and bled, all our liberties and institutions, all the influence for the good of the British empire throughout the world hangs in the balance today; and therefore, we cannot, because we must not, fail."

THE EASTLAND DISASTER

U. S. Department of Commerce
Inquiry Under Supervision of
Sec. Redfield

CHICAGO, July 29.—Examination of Charles C. Eckelife, steamboat inspectors in the inquiry of the United States department of commerce into the cause of the Eastland disaster began today under the supervision of Secretary Redfield. Officers and crew of the steamer and a long list of survivors were summoned to the federal building to tell their versions of the catastrophe.

United States District Attorney Clyne prepared to empanel a federal grand jury to investigate the question of criminal responsibility for the accident.

Speaking of possible action by the state grand jury, he said:

"We will demand the right to enter proceedings against the two steamboat inspectors and the boat captain named by the coroner's jury in advance of any action by the state attorney following indictments by the grand jury. These men are government officers. However the state will have the fullest co-operation from the government."

The investigation ordered by the city council was abandoned today and the council committee decided to petition President Wilson to appoint an investigating commission to act independently of federal authorities. The president also was petitioned to have the government make a stability test of every excursion vessel running out of Chicago.

TO PLACE RESPONSIBILITY

CHICAGO, July 29.—Governmental efforts to place the responsibility for the capsizing of the steamer Eastland in the Chicago river last Saturday got under way today with the convening of the federal grand jury and the opening of the investigation by the steamboat inspection service under the direction of Secretary of Commerce Redfield.

Plans for both inquiries were completed at conferences which lasted all night.

CALL OWNER OF EASTLAND

United States District Attorney Clyne expects that among the first witnesses before the grand jury will be William H. Hull, general manager of the company owning the Eastland.

One of the points to be laid before the grand jury is the competency of investigators indicating that many of the crew were unfamiliar with nautical work. Evidence supporting a charge of negligence also will be presented to the grand jury.

CORONER'S JURY REPORT

The county grand jury which was adjourned yesterday following a conference between Secretary Redfield and State's Atty. Hoyne, was reconvened today and the report of the coroner's jury recommending that six persons be held over before it.

A charge of manslaughter was recommended by the coroner early today against William H. Hull, general manager of the company owning the Eastland; Harry Pedersen, captain, and Joseph N. Erickson, chief engineer of the Eastland; Walter K. Greenbaum, general manager of the Indiana Transportation company, which chartered the Eastland; and Robert Reid and Judge S. S. Dibble.

He called the waiting newspapermen into his chambers and, as his secretary handed them copies of his typewritten decision, the justice said:

"I have denied the motion for a new trial. And this is my birthday. I am 53 today. It's a pretty tough way to spend your birthday, isn't it?"

The justice added that he had planned to spend the day with his wife and daughter.

"I virtually arrived at my decision Tuesday night," said Justice Ford, "but spent many hours since then phrasing and arranging the opinion."

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

INC. OUTING AT GENOA CAMP IN TYNGSBORO—KNIGHTS AND LADIES ENJOY THEMSELVES

It is estimated that over 2500 people, including members and their families and friends of the Knights of Columbus, visited the beautiful Genoa camp in Tyngsboro today, the occasion being the annual basket picnic conducted by the society.

A large number made the trip to the grounds early this morning, but the majority waited until 1 o'clock this afternoon when several extra cars were run to the scene of the annual event.

During the afternoon several sporting events, including a baseball game between two teams composed of young ladies were carried out. This latter event proved a decided feature and was much enjoyed by the large crowd which lined both sides of the diamond to watch the contest. Following the young ladies' game, the married and single men had at it for nine innings in which several high class plays were made by players of both factions.

Refreshments were served and a concert by the Middlesex County Training school band was enjoyed. Buckley's orchestra furnished music for dancing in the evening.

Father Cashin, the pelican chaplain and Becker's spiritual adviser, is expected to be with the condemned man much of the time today and tonight. Father Cashin will also accompany Becker to the death chamber.

Mrs. Helen Becker, wife of the condemned man is expected to arrive today to spend the last hours allowed her with her husband. Other members of Becker's family are also expected.

In the absence of Thomas Mott Osborne, warden of Sing Sing, who is opposed to capital punishment, Deputy Warden Johnson will have charge of the execution of Becker and Samuel Haynes, a negro, who will probably be electrocuted a few minutes before Becker.

When Becker returned to his cell he found that all of his clothing, personal belongings and even the few furnishings of the cell had been removed. On a new cot lay a thin black suit, white shirt with soft collar and a black tie. Black stockings and soft foot slippers also were provided.

IMPORTANT CONFERENCE

GERMAN IMPERIAL CHANCELLOR AND AMBASSADOR GERARD CONFER

BERLIN, July 28 noon, via London, 4 p.m.—Dr. Theobald von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German imperial chancellor, who returned to the capital yesterday from a visit to the army headquarters in the field, where he talked with Emperor William, sent for James W. Gerard, the American ambassador to Germany, today.

The conference between the American ambassador and the German chancellor is expected to have an important bearing on the future development of the relations between Germany and the United States.

BASE BALL GAME

ties whenever the Lowellians played at home; good old days for everybody but the mill officials across the river whose employees couldn't be kept from the mill windows overlooking the grounds when a game was in progress. I almost forgot—good old days also for the men and the boys who worked in the river in boats, raising the toll balls, when Duffy was in his boat, the house buns that came over the fence into the water. As I sat in the grandstand awaiting today's double-header and watched Duffy at practice, and then turning around behind behind me in the grandstand, Jim Cudwyd, who was captain of the Lowell team when Salmon was its coach, then Salmon, who was playing ball when Hector was a pup; Frank Howe, Tom Whitaker and Jim McLaughlin, who used to back the Lowell team when there was much glory but little of the long green ribbon, and many other stand-bid old timers, I was moved alike back to the old days and river street.

Do you remember the day that Duffy made the three home runs and the three bigger in four times up over in River street? Tim Cobb in his first form never did anything like that. Jim Lyon was our opponent and the first three times up, Hugheys belted the ball over the fence for a homer. The fourth time he came to bat Jimmie Canavan who was playing the outfield for Lynn exacted a little comedy stunt just to get caught but didn't catch him. Hugheys on his fourth home run. The outer-end of centre field was roped off and behind the ropes were carriages and wagons. Among them on this day was an express wagon. When Dutchy came up, that the fourth time, Jimmie Canavan ran back to the ropes and jumping over mounted the express wagon and waved his arms to Duffy to come on. The crowd roared with laughter, and while yet they were roaring, Duffy smashed the ball out over the express wagon to the right field, and it struck the roof as it began to soar. Canavan jumped from the wagon and ran back and he got the ball in time to hold Hugheys on third, but had been in his position he never could have connected with it and likely would have made an unbroken and almost inconceivable record of four runs at four times at bat.

Do you remember the day that Duffy made the record for the longest hit ever seen in Manchester? Lowell was playing at Manchester and the centre field fence in the Manchester grounds was just 60 feet from the home plate. There was a standing offer of a gold watch for any Manchester player who could put the ball over that fence. Only one ball ever went over it in a game, and that ball was sent on its way by the mighty Hugheys.

Duffy Got Anson

Duffy made such a hit in Lowell that Tim Murnane started to boost him to old Pop Anson of the Chicago White Stockings, prime Lowell booster. Jim Murnane, captain of the Lowell team, Murnane finally sent word to Lowell that he would sign Duffy for Chicago and one fine day Cuddy and Hugheys journeyed to Boston to see Murnane. They elevated up to Tim's office in the Globe building only to find him absent and instead found an honest boy who told Tim he'd signed up. Then Hugheys began to think that Tim must be kidding him and he started to depart for his home in River Point or Riverton, or some other place in Rhode Island that was connected with a river. But Cuddy had more patience and remained upon the job until Tim came to him and finally Tim came in and paid the $500 advance money to the delighted Hugheys and the next day Hugheys was on his way to the Windy City.

When Duffy first went to Chicago Anson didn't have much of an opinion of him, but when Tim told him of his hit, when Chicago went in as last eastern trip with some of the other members of the team was left at home, with orders to practise each day for several hours at the ball grounds. In charge of those grounds was a ground-keeper who kept Anson company, and while the boys spent the day at the park during his absence, and they used to wonder how old Pop got such a line on them. He'd always know just when they showed up and how long they remained during his absence. Duffy, however, didn't cheat in the absence of his boss. On the contrary, each morning when he went to the ball grounds at nine o'clock he took a lunch with him and remained, persistently practising until late in the afternoon. Upon Anson's return the faithful ground-keeper reported the facts to him and Anson was so impressed that he immediately put Hugheys in the regular line-up and he never had occasion to pull out or send a man to bat for him in all the time that he remained with the team.

The pennant was won by Lowell in 1887, beating out Portland toward the close of the season by a narrow margin, the final standing being Lowell, 682; Portland, 681. Lowell went wild over the team. The old Sun not out a special edition with pictures of the bunch and sent a man all the way to Portland to sell the papers.

Do you remember the old Lowell team? There were Catchers Joe Sullivan, Morgan Murphy and finally Guinasso. Joe Sullivan went to Toronto and when his ball playing days were over went back to East Boston where he is in business today. Morgan Murphy became one of the country's famous catchers while Guinasso remained as the last living Jesuit. He used to run a cafe in Boston, some years ago. Henry Burns, Lowell's famous pitcher, remained with the team for some years afterward and when his arm gave out he took tickets on the gate. He's now in business in the same city. Then there was Burke, another Sandy pitcher who pitched the closing game between Portland and Lowell. Big Pat Hartnett, the first baseman, is in Boston and had a narrow escape from injury a few days ago when an elevator in which he was riding fell down a flight of stairs. Jim Cudwyd is at home, Boylston, a young lad. Duffy is in front of me yelling at his son. Hugheys played third base Lowell in those days. Billy Higgins became famous as the man who invented the trap-ball as the man who necessitated putting the infiel'd by rule into the books. Tim Shattock afterward went to Louisville. Shattock's first game was against the St. Louis Browns. He was a great pitcher and the crowd roared with laughter, and when he was through, the manager sent him to the dugout and said, "You're a great pitcher, but you're not a good ball player." Shattock replied, "I'm not a good ball player, but I'm a great pitcher."

The batteries for today—"Tis the gentle voice of Kittie Bransfield, another good old-timer, calling me back to this generator and ball game.

Everything was lovely for today's game except the car service, but the large crowd managed to get out to the game. With Little Loring, Portland's infielder, was in the line-up again today after a lay-off. On account of Portland putting in a left-handed pitcher, Greenhalge played right field instead of Stimpson. Manager Kelleher made a slight change in the batting order putting Dee up where he was batted and putting King down in the on-deck circle before the game. Manager Duffy announced that he signed Martin, a pitcher from Macon, Georgia, in the Southern Atlantic League. The line-up was as follows:

Fifth Inning

King, Lowell's latest acquisition, was on the mound in the first game. Peter Clemens, the first man up, struck out. Burns and Dowell went out on bases. Dowell hit a single to the right field instead of Stimpson. Manager Kelleher made a slight change in the batting order putting Dee up where he was batted and putting King down in the on-deck circle before the game. Manager Duffy announced that he signed Martin, a pitcher from Macon, Georgia, in the Southern Atlantic League. The line-up was as follows:

In the second Farrell hit to Fahey and died at first. Clancy got a single across second base. Sennett struck out and Clancy attempted to steal second and was thrown out. Barrows got around to third in the second but couldn't score. Fahey opened with a single to centre. Ahearn sent him to second with a sacrifice. Estes flied out to Burns but Barrows clung to second. He made third on a wild pitch but Fahey hit to Watkins and went out at first. Score: Lowell, 0; Portland, 0.

Second Inning

In the second Farrell hit to Fahey and died at first. Clancy got a single across second base. Sennett struck out and Clancy attempted to steal second and was thrown out. Barrows got around to third in the second but couldn't score. Fahey opened with a single to centre. Ahearn sent him to second with a sacrifice. Estes flied out to Burns but Barrows clung to second. He made third on a wild pitch but Fahey hit to Watkins and went out at first.

Score: Lowell, 0; Portland, 0.

Third Inning

In the third Lonergan and Hayden hit boundaries to Dee and were out. Watkins hit to Fahey and went out on a close play. Bowcock fanned in Lowell's half. King hit to Clancy and was out at first. Swayne died on a line drive to Lonergan.

Score: Lowell, 0; Portland, 0.

Fourth Inning

"Shorty" Dye made a circus one-hand catch of Clemens' line drive in the fourth. Burns struck out. Dowell hit to the centre-field fence for three bases. Farrell walked. Then Farrell and Dowell attempted a double steal and Dowell was caught at the plate.

Three fly balls, one to each outfielder finished up Lowell in the fourth.

Fifth Inning

A shower came down in the fifth but did not interrupt the game any and even teams scored a run.

Clancy hit a line drive to Estes. Dowell hit a line drive to King. Lonergan struck out. Haydon drew a base on balls. Then Pitcher Watkins singled to left field and Sennett scored. Clemens hit to King and died at first.

In the last half, Ahearn opened up wide and failed to connect and advanced him to second with a sacrifice. Estes flied out to Burns. Bowcock singled to right field and Ahearn scored. Bowcock was caught trying to steal second.

Score: Lowell, 1; Portland, 1.

Sixth Inning

Burns hit to Bowcock and died at first. Dowell died out to Barrows. Farrell hit to King and went out at first. With one man out in the last half of the sixth a downpour of rain came and caused a suspension of the game. After a few minutes in the rain the players went back to their places when down came a tremendous fall of rain which halted the game for half an hour. Then the sun came out but the grounds were in a soggy condition and there was another delay while the grounds-keepers worked around the baselines. Had it not been for the rain the first game would have been one of the quietest of the season for five and a half innings were played in a little over a half hour. Timmy Bransfield called the first game off and the two halves having exchanged and then the second game was started.

SECOND GAME

When the second game was called the same batter, Watkins, was at bat and he appeared for Portland while Fahey, who was sent to the mound by Manager Kelleher.

Two bunts of the second game had been played at the time of going to bat, with neither team being able to score.

GAME POSTPONED

New York-Chicago postponed, wet grounds. Two games tomorrow and two Sunday.

RESCUED FROM CANAL

Had it not been for the quick action of employees of the Tremont & Suffolk mills this forenoon, it is probable another drowning would have been added to the already long list of canal fatalities. It is not known whether this morning's affair was an attempt at suicide or an accident.

Patrolman Joseph J. Lamontagne endeavored to play the role of hero, but his attempts were fruitless and those now in line for a Carnegie medal are laborers in the employ of the Tremont & Suffolk mills, who risked their lives

RUSH TO BUY WARSTOCKS

GREAT ACTIVITY AT OPENING—REACTION LATER—CLOSING UNSETLED

NEW YORK, July 29.—There was a rush to buy war stocks at the opening of the market today. United States Steel, Crucible Steel, Westinghouse Electric and Allis-Chalmers were bought in lots of several thousand shares and these stocks, as well as Bethlehem Steel, reached new high levels. Bethlehem Steel was particularly vigorous. The buying was 500 shares at 15 to 70 compared with yesterday's close of 65 1-2. The price mounted rapidly to 75 1-2, an advance of 10 1-2 on the day and thirty points on the week. Bethlehem Steel rose 10 points to 76 1-2. Westinghouse Electric slipped 12 points at 112 to 111 1-2, as against yesterday's close of 110 3-8. Allis-Chalmers rose two points to 25 1-2. A number of other stocks advanced 1 to 4 points. Railroad shares were strong although St. Paul, on which dividend action is to be taken today, slumped three points.

The advance was too rapid to be maintained and after half an hour's trading a reaction occurred. Bethlehem Steel fell back eight points. Speculation in the war stocks continued throughout the day. Price taking was on a heavy scale causing frequent releases of 2 and even 3 points; but the demand was so insistent that prices recovered and reached still higher levels. There was no new influence of importance and the market was again based on prospects of large profits from war orders and the improved conditions mentioned in the steel and related industries. Railroad shares dragged but their comparative heaviness had little effect on the speculators. As the market closed in the hour after the close of business, the market was checked in the final half hour, after Bethlehem Steel had touched 275 and Crucible Steel 83. The market for these shares then became demoralized. Bethlehem slumped 15 and Crucible 17 points. The closing was unsettled.

BOSTON MARKET

BOSTON, July 29.—Local mining shares recorded a moderate advance by noon today, Tamarack being the leader. Other stocks made fractional gains during the first hour.

LOWELL BOYS IN WAR

Bugler Allette, son of Dennis Allette of 179 Perkins street, this city, is now in the French trenches fighting in the great European war with the Canadian regiment. Within is another Lowell boy, Eddie Chasse.

The father of Bugler Allette received a letter yesterday from his son, stating he was enjoying the best of health. The letter was dated July 11 and was sent from the former camp of the Canadian regiment known as East Sandringham Camp, England. The young man states he is about to leave England for France, where he says upon the receipt of this letter he will be in the trenches. The young soldier, who by the way, is but 19 years of age, states life at camp is great as compared to what is awaiting the soldiers in the trenches. He says, however, he is not afraid to face death and he has made arrangements for his father to recover a pension in case of his death occurring on the battlefield.

Bugler Allette, speaking about his comrade from Lowell, Eddie Chasse, says he is also in good health and is longing to be on the battlefield. He promises his father to write him as much detail about the war as is possible from the trenches, and wishes to be remembered to his Lowell friends

Bugler Allette is a member of the 22d F. C. regiment. A company, platoon 4, fifth infantry brigade, Second division.

Your Boys and Girls

The luncheon to be carried to the kiddies' picnic, presents problems that tax many a mother's brain. Little individual jars of jams and jellies are invaluable in planning for the luncheon. So are crackers and wafers of every sort—sweet graham, ginger snaps, oatmeal crackers, butter thins, five o'clock tea biscuit, and a host of others. Hotted foods are the most convenient; olives, figs, peanut butter, lunch tongue, deviled ham, tuna fish, sardines—all can be packed into the lunch basket as they come or may be used to taste individually.

As a business the child learns that the sticks are the final issue is that a large number of self-willed, unbearable young men and women go out into the world, either to get beaten into a decent shape by the sticks and blows of their fellows, or else become sour and spoiled by general dislike.

To teach the child not to give way to temper the mother must control her own. She must be gentle and firm as a good trained nurse. She must be patient, she must be both the stick and the cure. Thus she will succeed at last, and her encouragement should be that talent and genius are no protection to her child in the great world.

Education is not a safeguard from danger. A man or woman who has self-control, who can face disappointment with a quiet heart and resolute will, is superior to danger, is beyond temptation, and can walk with sure steps in dangerous places.

Here is a new quilt which will surely hold baby's attention and keep his chubby legs from a creep of investigation across the nursery floor. It is made of soft pink and white silk muslin. The center is of the pink and the borders are white.

From the white muslin about twelve or fourteen bats have been cut out in silhouette fashion and have been appliqued around the pink center with a heavy embroidery silk. They have a few fine suggesting whiskers, nose and feet are also embroidered with the pink silk and the eyes are glittering pink glass beads.

If these bead eyes are objectionable for a particular individual, they can be omitted and embroidered eyes substituted. The whole cover is quilted carefully by hand over the softest of fillings. If the cat does not appeal to your aesthetic sense, try bunnies or a procession from Noah's Ark to please his lordship.

Utilizing the Trunk at Home

"I wish I had a dressing table for my room," discontentedly remarked Marjorie, as Marie placed crisp, new covers on Madame's table and dresser in her boudoir.

"Why don't you get one?" enquired Marie. "I would if I could afford it."

"Have you a trunk or chest?" again asked Marjorie thoughtfully. "Why yes, I have a trunk." was the reply.

"Then I will tell you how to make a

children. They will be frank and open if they are encouraged to be confiding. They will not seek to make excuse for their faults, if they know that it pleases their parents, and that this will be the worse consequence of their naughtiness.

And lastly we should be especially careful not to sold them for international faults.

As I look about among my acquaintances I can see that in some households the absence of the mother even for a day, would result in a great deal of irregularity in the conduct of the children, to say the least.

And other homes almost as bad, though the parents are good, and the children go on about their games and other affairs as though nothing unusual had occurred.

The difference between these two types of homes is all in the viewpoint of the parents. In one case the parents rule with a high hand, and the feeling of restraint is constantly with the children in their presence. Whoever is left in authority when the parents are away, is sure to find a strong tendency among the children to break out, or the children will feel that they will not be dealt with as severely for any branch of discipline, and they take advantage of the removal of the usual restraint.

The primer for the general behavior of children contains rules so obvious that the average mother can only resent their repetition. To talk in a child's presence of his gifts or looks is to pave the way for vanity and arrogance. The slightest impertinence to superiors should be promptly and firmly checked.

He must take off his hat to his elders, be they men or women or girls four years older than himself. He must never remain seated when an old person is standing, or be other than helpful, willing, and gracious with age.

He must not longer be taught to say "Yes, ma'am" when the mother or grandmother speaks, but the reply must still be as deferential. "Yes, mother." "Yes, grandmother" is the way the reply should be put, and when a woman is introduced her name should be respectfully repeated as the child gives his hand.

The French Maid Says:

"Utilizing the Trunk at Home

"I wish I had a dressing table for my room," discontentedly remarked Marjorie, as Marie placed crisp, new covers on Madame's table and dresser in her boudoir.

"Why don't you get one?" enquired Marie. "I would if I could afford it."

"Have you a trunk or chest?" again asked Marjorie thoughtfully. "Why yes, I have a trunk." was the reply.

"Then I will tell you how to make a most attractive dressing table out of the trunk," began Marie. "If the top is not flat have a carpenter make a smooth top of boards that will exactly cover the trunk. Next screw a small hook on one side on which to hang the key. If it is kept in the lock it is impossible to be knocked out or lost, and to be in the way when you sit to do your hair."

"Make a cover of attractive cretonne, matching the window hangings or barmarizing with the decorations of the room. Cut the top to fit allowing an inch all around for shrinkage and another inch for seams, for this cover will wash beautifully. It should just escape the floor and have a one inch hem. Sew the draping to the top pieces, being careful to adjust the corners correctly, then add a box platted valance around the top.

"This cover will stay in place, be easily removed for access to the trunk. You cover the top with the usual burlap, and when this frequently removed and laundered, your cretonne will not need washing often than once a year. Hang over the center of the trunk dressing table an old fashioned mirror and on each side fasten a brass candle sconces. The branching ones, holding two or three wax candles, are most effective."

For a Beautiful Foot

The woman who possesses a beautiful foot has a right to be proud of it, for foot beauty is rare among civilized folks. The feet should be bathed in hot water at night and dipped in cold water in the morning, to keep the flesh firm and resistant. Feet bathed only in hot water are apt to be soft and flabby and easily acquire corns and callous flesh. Once a week rub the sole of the foot with half a lemon. Then rub a little vaseline into the skin with the palm of the hand.

Callous places should be kept down with a bit of sandpaper or a manicure file, but the foot treated to a dash of cold water, dried and rubbed with vaseline and lemon once a week will not be likely to acquire callous places.

The toes may be massaged at the tips to keep them tapering and supple, and the nails of the fingers a green soap applied with a sponge stick under the cutted ends of the nail and the cuticle being pushed back carefully to preserve the curve at the base of the nail.

If there is any evidence of a corn forming, apply a cold compress before going to bed. Wrap the toes in a bandage, or wrap out of cold water and dip in a bit of oiled silk, securely over all. Even an obstinate corn will soon yield to this simple but effective treatment.

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

THE PROGRESSIVE FLOP

Ostensibly the progressive party in this state is to hold itself in existence so to speak for another year by catching on to the coat tails of the prohibition party which, we presume, will have no objection. It is the intention to have the progressives endorse the prohibition candidate for governor and support him in preference to any of the other candidates. While that may serve the purpose of preserving the party as a separate entity until next year, yet it shows that as a political organization it is on the verge of dissolution.

We do not believe that any large proportion of the 127,000 voters who supported Charles Sumner Bird in 1913 will take kindly to this proposition. Rather will they support the candidates of their choice in the democratic and republican parties feeling that in doing otherwise they would only be throwing away their votes. This large body of voters will find the democratic platform more in accord with their political principles than that of the republican party. Much, however, will depend upon the party platforms adopted and the tickets nominated by the two great parties.

It remains to be seen what the progressives will do in the next national campaign, but Col. Roosevelt at San Francisco recently announced that Gov. Johnson of California would be the next president of the United States. The colonel may not have meant what he said, but he felt he should pay some high tribute to Governor Johnson, one of the men who sacrificed most in lining up with Roosevelt at the republican convention in which the party went to pieces.

VERY INDISCREET TALK

The German alliance is doing some very foolish talking in reference to the relations between this country and Germany. Whatever these relations are or may be, the instigator of the trouble was Germany. German diplomacy broke up the triple alliance, causing Italy to side with the allies. It caused France to make a treaty with Russia; England a treaty with both those nations and Japan a treaty with England. Germany has not a friend among the European powers except Sweden, which hates Russia and Turkey. Now the German diplomats are alienating the friendship of the United States, the only remaining great nation among the neutrals.

The leaders of the German alliance in this country dub President Wilson as the tool of Wall street. One of them has made the statement that war between the United States and Germany is practically certain and that "it behoves us" to stand together. That is a very indiscreet position for these gentlemen to take, for as American citizens, they have sworn allegiance to the United States. If they do anything to indicate that they are still in sympathy with Germany and ready to support her in a conflict with the United States, they will get themselves into serious trouble.

The adopted citizen is not expected to relinquish his sworn allegiance to his adopted country just because his mother country happens to be in distress.

SPECIAL SESSION PROBABLE

It is now practically certain that President Wilson will call an extra session of congress this fall to act upon various matters of vital interest to the nation. In the first place the question of strengthening our coast defenses and getting the army and navy ready for emergencies will require action by congress that should not be delayed. President Wilson has called for estimates from the various departments by Sept. 1 which is two months earlier than usual. While this does not positively indicate the president's intention to call a special session of congress, still it shows that he is getting ready for it in case such a course may be necessary.

In view of the crisis with Germany it is quite likely that a special session will be called. Congressman Rogers who is making a tour of his district, meeting his rural constituents at the town post offices, says he would not be surprised to hear at any moment that the president had issued a call for a special session. The congressman feels that there is an exigency to justify it and one to which the president is fully alive.

chances would favor the election of the former with a respectable majority. That republican majority will vanish on election day as in the last two campaigns. Republicans in Massachusetts like their brethren in Maine have revolted against their party machine and its methods. They prefer a good democrat to a poor republican. That is why Walsh will be re-elected.

THE OUTBREAK IN HAITI

That bloody revolutionary outbreak at Port Au Prince, Haiti, was after all only what was to be expected as a result of the heartless execution of 100 political prisoners including former President Orestes Zamor by order of General Oscar.

That piece of cruelty aroused the populace to a state of rage in which fury knew no bounds. They sought out General Oscar and riddled him with bullets; then they dragged President Guillaume from the French legation in which he had taken refuge and shot him to death. The brutality of the mob was frightful, but it was excited by the tragic events of the preceding day. The cold-blooded execution of 100 prisoners for political offences was a crime for which the mob made the perpetrators pay with their lives. This is a case in which the United States should intervene at once to put an end to the reign of terror and prevent further slaughter.

WATCHFUL WAITING

"Wilson Waits for Details," says a headline. Watchfully waiting for details seems to be about all he does do. —Portland Express.

Now brother do not be wilfully unfair. What would you have him do? Rush the country into war with Germany or go out a la Roosevelt to stir up the militarist spirit. He has not intervened in Mexico and in that he has exercised good judgment. Unless we are greatly mistaken the consensus of opinion in this country today is, that the president has met every requirement of his office with a degree of ability not excelled by that of any president since Lincoln. Our Portland friend might as well get into the Wilson procession without any further "watchful waiting."

BECKER MUST DIE

Lieut Becker, formerly of the New York police department, has been twice convicted of the complicity in the murder of Rosenthal, a man who threatened to reveal some police graft which would implicate Becker.

His last legal resort has failed to secure a new trial or a further stay of execution. There is no question as to the fairness of his trial and conviction, and no good reason to urge a plea for mercy.

It would seem, therefore, that there is little or no ground to justify any arrest of judgment. The law should take its course in his case as well as in those of the men who became his dupes.

DEMAND BY RAILROADS

The railroads of this country ask the government to pay them the sum of $10,880,000 more for carrying the mails than is paid at present as a result of the increase in weight and car space resulting from the parcels post. This service is very valuable to the public and must naturally be paid for from some source.

It is reasonable to assume that it will take some time for the government and the railroads to reach an equitable adjustment of the expense. The parcel post system is growing, not only in the number of packages, but in the weight thereof, so that the increased burden has fallen upon the railroads without any corresponding increase in expense.

THE SLAVS STRIKE HARD

The announcement that Germany has lost 500,000 men in the enveloping movement by which the kaiser attempted to capture the entire Russian army, shows that in all probability the Germans undertook much more than they could accomplish. If the report be true, then the Teutons have sustained the greatest reverse inflicted upon any army since the opening of the war. The attempt to bring the whole field army of Russia was a bold undertaking but so far as appears at this writing it is not a success and will not be a success.

THE NOTE PRAISED

Every newspaper that has commented upon President Wilson's note to Germany with the exception of those of pronounced German sympathies, has praised the document as presenting the American side of the case with clearness, firmness and fairness. That is all that could be expected from a sincere and patriotic man like President Wilson whose sole aim is to uphold the rights of the non-slaveholding states.

Gov. Walsh stands the slight chance of defeating McCall, who is quite likely to be nominated by the republicans. From here it looks much like the alienation of one year ago with a strong progressive ticket absent. Under those conditions the republicans, with a normal majority in the state of 50.9%, ought to be in a position to give the opposition a hard fight.

Should Walsh be the democratic standard bearer as he undoubtedly will be and McCall his opponent, the Americans on the seas, rather than stir up international strife or make any grandstand play to the jingoes.

PRESIDENT NOT BLUFFING

Let no nation assume that President Wilson is bluffing when he says he will stand for the freedom of the seas at any cost. He means what he says and further, he will be backed up in that stand by the entire people of this country. When it comes to a question of maintaining American rights against encroachment by foreign powers there is but one political party in this country and that is made up of the sovereign people.

MR. BRYAN

Mr. Bryan is back at the only job for which he is adapted by nature—making money on the lecture platform. Some writers have referred to him as politically dead. As a candidate yes but as a force operating on public opinion on political questions, no. It is premature to pronounce a man so very active and valuable as dead politically or otherwise.

EQUAL RIGHTS?

Good for the Minneapolis park commission! They have made a rule that girls must not smoke cigarettes in the parks.—Holyoke Transcript.

There is a great chance for the suffragists to claim equal rights and privileges with the men. We expect to see a band of young women suffragettes like march into the park, each whiling the most delicious and delectable brand of cigarets.

The job of the "efficiency man" has been created quite recently and in many cases the man who fills it is the least efficient in the establishment in which he is employed. But be it to see that others show efficiency even if he himself does not. Rather queer isn't it?

SEEN AND HEARD

A married woman likes to feed tramps because it is a relief to have a man eat a meal and not complain about the cooking.

THE MOTH PEST

Has it ever occurred to you that in the brown tail and gypsy moth the agricultural industry in Massachusetts has been infected? asks the Boston Advertiser. On account of the spraying of the trees to kill the moths the flow of honey in this state has been seriously retarded, or it might be said that the bees have been hampered in their work. Willard Whiting, secretary of the state board of agriculture, is calling a conference of all interested persons to his home in Concord next Saturday to consider the whole problem in the state, with special reference to spraying.

ACCIDENT TO EMPHASIZE

It takes an accident to emphasize a dangerous practice, and now that a passenger has been knocked off the running board on the Canobie Lake perhaps there will be a little more care taken by those who pile onto the running boards to keep their heads and bodies near to the outside of the car in motion. Several years ago an accident of a similar nature occurred, if I remember correctly, not more than a hundred yards from where the one occurred last Sunday night, which resulted in the holes being changed and removed. At a greater distance from the track it is evident, however, from the accident Sunday night, that it is possible still to get hit in the head with a pole, unless reasonable care is taken to keep the head near the car.

with the federal department of agriculture that the cost of distributing milk and cream is too high. The department has just made an investigation of milk distribution in Washington and finds that the milk wagons of that city cover daily 2.3 times the entire length of the city's street. This probably represents the state of affairs in other cities as well, including Lawrence. Wouldn't it be possible to reduce the cost of delivery if the milk dealers could get together and so arrange things that one team or at most two would travel a street each day? Of course there are a lot of people who want a special milk, or milk from a special producer. That could be easily adjusted by having a central supply station. And after the milk dealers have done their part, the produce dealers might try the same—some of the grocer and the baker and the candlestick maker. The suggestion is undoubtedly like a good many others, in theory but unworkable in practice.—Lawrence Telegram.

EVEN THIS SHALL PASS AWAY

Once in Persia reigned a king. Who upon his signed ring

Graved a machine and a wife,

Whom, if held before his eyes,

Gave him counsel at a glance,

Fit for every change and chance,

Solemn words, and these are they:

"Even this shall pass away."

Trains of camels through the sand

Brought him gems from Samarkand;

Fleets of gallops through the seas

Brought him pearls to watch with

These if he counted not his gain

Treasures of the mine or mine;

What is wealth?" the king would say:

"Even this shall pass away."

In the revels of his court,

At the zenith of the sport,

When the palms of all his guests

Turned with clapping at his jests,

He, and his wife and wine,

Cried "Oh! loving friends of mine!

Pleasure comes, but not to stay;

Even this shall pass away."

Fighting on a furious field,

Once a javelin pierced his shield,

Soldiers, with a loud lament,

Bore him bleeding to his tent.

Greening from his tortured side,

"This is hard to bear," he cried,

"But with patience, day by day,

Even this shall pass away."

Teasing in the public square,

Twenty cutlets in the air,

Here his stain'd carnel in stone,

Then the king, disguised, unknown,

Stood before his sculptured name,

Musing weekly, "What is fame?

Fame is but a slow decay—"

Even this shall pass away."

Waiting on a furious field,

With a lance at the gates of gold,

He, with his dying breath,

"Life is done, but what is death?"

Then, in answer to the king,

"Fell a sunbeam on his ribs,

Show him by a heavenly ray,

"Even this shall pass away."

MACHINISTS ON STRIKE

Becker Milling Machine Co.
Tied Up—Employees Want Increase of 20 per cent

BOSTON, July 29.—More than 600 machinists and other employees struck today at the plant of the Becker Milling Machine Co. in the Hyde Park section of the city, because of the refusal of the company to grant their demands for increased wages of approximately 20 per cent, and the reinstatement of discharged workmen. The plant has been operating night and day recently filling orders for machines used in the preparation of war materials.

A committee of the employees was in conference with officials of the company for more than an hour during the forenoon. While the conference was in progress about 100 machinists left their work. Others followed when the committee left the plant at the conclusion of the conference and before the outcome had been made known. The strikers marched to labor headquarters where a meeting was held.

The committee reported that the company had offered some concessions including time and a half for overtime, reinstatement of all discharged employees pending an investigation of each individual case and the placing of the plant on a fifty hour a week basis. The offer was debated for some time. The original demands of the workers were for double pay for overtime, reinstatement of all discharged men and a 48-hour week.

It was claimed that all the employees with the exception of a few maulers were out. Former Gov. Foss is president of the company.

THE HAITIAN SITUATION

French Consulate Menaced by Revolutionists—United States Marines Landed

WASHINGTON, July 29.—The French consulate at Cape Haitien, Haiti, is menaced by revolutionists and a guard from the United States auxiliary cruiser Eagle has been landed to protect it. This information was cabled early today to the state department by American Consul Livingston.

Rear Admiral Caperton, in a cablegram sent last night from Port au Prince and received at the navy department today, said:

"The landing force entered Port au Prince and bivouacked for the night at the market place in the northern part of the city. A guard was placed at the French legation. No serious disturbance. This action was decided on after consultations with the American chargé d'affaires and four French and British chargés d'affaires. The French warship Descartes is expected tonight."

"Two companies of seamen were landed at 5:30 p.m. Have information from commander of the U. S. S. Eagle, reporting condition at Cape Haitien quiet, but the Eagle landed 20 more men at Cape Haitien to protect French consulate for fear of attack on refugees there. They were landed at request of French consul."

Secretary Daniels conferred with Secretary Lansing on the Haitian situation, but no further instructions were sent to Admiral Caperton. Mr. Daniels said he thought the American forces had the situation well in hand. While only 300 men have been landed, the cruiser Washington is off shore ready.

MORE MARINES ARRIVE

WASHINGTON, July 29.—With the arrival today of additional American marines at Port au Prince scene of the latest Haitian revolution, Rear Admiral Caperton's forces for the protection of the lives and property of Americans and other foreigners were increased to 500. The additional 100 marines were due from Guantanamo aboard the collier Jason. Four hundred marines and bluejackets from the U. S. S. Washington have already landed.

Officials here expected that Rear Admiral Caperton would ask for additional reinforcements. A full regiment, it was said, would be necessary to patrol the city. Additional forces are available at Guantanamo.

The landing of American forces at Port au Prince followed the recent of a wireless report from Rear Admiral Caperton describing the situation there as "very grave." Other official reports told of the assassination of President

VISCOUNT OURAS RESIGNS; SHAW ENTERS PRIMARIES

JAPANESE MINISTER OF JUSTICE QUITS FOLLOWING BRIBERY INVESTIGATION

TOKIO, July 29.—Viscount Kanetake Oura, the Japanese minister of justice, resigned his portfolio today. The minister's action, following the investigation by the ministry of justice into the bribery charges growing out of the parliamentary elections last March, has caused a sensation throughout Japan. The case involves several members and ex-members of the imperial diet. Emperor Yoshihito sanctioned the resignation of Viscount Oura.

EXCITEMENT IN LONDON

DEALINGS IN NEW WAR LOAN WITH RIGHTS OF CONVERSION STARTED

LONDON, July 29, 12:14 p.m.—Mild excitement prevailed in Throgmorton street this morning when dealings in the new war loan with the rights of conversion were started. Brokers rushed to the Bank of England to obtain scrip certificates, as sellers must furnish the numbers of the certificates before parting with their holdings.

The stock exchange opened with a large attendance and a cheer arose when the first dealer quoted 99 buyers and 99½ sellers for fully paid scrip.

A small business subsequently developed between these quotations.

THE BRIDGEPORT STRIKE

FEW MACHINISTS REMAIN OUT—AWAIT REPLY TO DEMAND FOR EIGHT HOUR DAY

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., July 29.—The strike of machinists at the plants of the Remington Arms and Ammunition Co. and its principal subsidiary, the Union Metallic Cartridge company, has practically ended, but some members of this craft today remain out of sub-contracting plants, until there is a definite reply to the demand for an eight hour day as has been granted by the Remington Co.

EDWARDS—David Edwards died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. N. Sleeper, 113 Third street, in a short illness. He was 79 years old. Deceased was born in Prince Edward island, but had lived in this city 31 years. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. E. N. Sleeper, Mrs. J. R. Peacock and Mrs. H. C. JOE HOUSER RULED ROOST

PITCHED MAGNIFICENTLY AND RATED GORGEOUSLY AGAINST PORTLAND TEAM

Rug Duffy, who way back in the 60's, on one memorable occasion while wearing a Lowell uniform at the old River street grounds, knocked so many home runs over the left field fence into the river that it got clogged up and backed into the mill sluice-ways, making it necessary to dredge the river bed, in order that Lowell's great cotton industry could continue in operation, was at Spalding park this afternoon with his Portland team.

The fact that Hugie was there was sufficient to draw a crowd irrespective of the fact that he had a good drawing card with him.

Just 25 years ago today the old Sun headed its baseball column with: "Duffy is a jewel" and like all real jewels he has not lost his lustre in nearly 25 years and while he no longer participates in the game actively, he hasn't forgotten the love of the game or the coach-line and showing the young generation how to perform.

Twenty-eight years ago Portland led the league on this particular day of the year with Lowell a close second, today, however, the quiet space between us and us is on the way down and will get the first division or bust.

It was ladies' day and the fair sex was well and so charmingly represented as to make the fellow who painted the sign: "Vote No. on Woman Suffrage on the left field fence feel like a lone down-picker."

If ever a pitcher really won his own game, in this or any other old league, that gentleman was Joe Houser, Lowell's star slab artist. Last Saturday, when he made his last appearance prior to yesterday, he broke the ice at Manchester, winning Lowell's first game of the season from Kieran's pants and with four times at bat collecting two doubles, a single and a home run.

Yesterday he was there again and with three times at bat smashed the ball for two singles and a three sackers so that he had a perfect batting average of .333 and seven times at bat, which even with Duffy used to hang them around on the old River street grounds, was going some. Joe allowed only four hits and passed but one batsman.

In the third he gave Mayberry the only pass of the game and proceeded to strike out the next three batsmen in succession. By means of his three baseruns in the seventh he scored Lowell's winning run.

More was on the mound for Portland and did ordinarily well. In the second he got into a hole and got out again, for while Lowell got two hits and two passes in this lancing the home team failed to score. Both pitchers had something on the ball, particularly Houser whose benders were beautiful to behold and he had them reaching in all directions for them.

Kitts Brasfield held the indicator, Aubrey disappearing after two weeks' steady employment with the Lowell team. Bobbie Keeler, who received a little recognition in the last week that tightened up the rubber in his neck, forcing him to lay off, saw the game from the press box.

Clements opened the game and hit a fly to Bowcock. Sweatt hit to Dee and died at first. Burns hit down the line to Bowcock and closed the inning. After Swayne had fanned out, Moore passed Fahey. Stimpson hit to Clancy and was out at first. Then Barrows walked but Ahearn was an easy out. Two flies to Bowcock and a grounder to Dee settled Portland in the second, while Lowell looked dangerous for a moment with three on base and two out, as the result of two scratch hits and two bases on balls. Dee, who made the first hit with one out, was helped off first by Moore, who certainly would get that ball over to first. Fahey also did, closing the inning with the three still on base, while Mayberry had walked in the third. Hayden, Moore and Clements fanned.

Portland arrived at third and was then shut off by a clever use of Ahearn's. Sweatt fled to Barrows. Burns got hit by a pitched ball. Dowell bunted to Fahey, who caught it in his attempt to make a double. Fahey threw bad to first and Burns made second. Then Farrell hit to Bowcock and there were men on first and third. Farrell started to second to draw the throw for a double steal. Ahearn made a blur to throw to second, but the ball to Houser, who promptly whipped the sphere over to Fahey, getting Burns off third. He was the third out.

Lowell scored one large run in the third. Stimpson opened the inning with a single to centre. Barrows bunted to Moore but Mayberry dropped the ball and both men were safe on the first respective bases. Ahearn hit to Fahey, getting Burns off third. He was the third out.

Lowell scored one large run in the fifth hit to Bowcock. Mayberry hit to Dee and was the second out. Hayden became real vexed over strike called on him and continued to talk about it until he had popped a fly to Estes.

Manassas, Abner, Ahearn, Fahey and Catcher Ahearn were exchanging compliments from their respective benches. In Lowell's half, Stimpson hit to Dowell and was out. Barrows, the third best batter in the league, fanned out. Ahearn walked a low ball high into the atmosphere but Farrell was under it when it came down.

In the sixth, Moore was an easy out to Bowcock and then Pete Clements came across with Portland's first hit in the game, single to left field. Pete stole second. Dee had him a mile but he dropped the ball. Fahey made a great start of Swift's angry benders and threw home, getting Pete at the plate. Burns lined one to Estes and closed the inning. Sweatt took Estes' line drive and Bill was out. He also took care of Dee's grounder while Bowcock fanned.

Then came the more or less lucky seventh. There was something doing on both sides. Dowell produced a dandy three base hit into deep right field. Farrell, the second best batter in the league, proved his claim to the title by smashing out a single to right that scored Dowell, and incidentally tied up the score. Farrell was forced to play a ground ball under fire to first, unexpectedly getting Clancy on the base. Clancy made three go some to put him out for Estes. Ahearn, Dee and Bowcock figured in the play.

PARIS, July 29, 3:20 a. m.—The first five months of the great war cost France exactly 6,403,000,000 francs, ($1,280,000,000). This is shown by the report of the budget committee on supplementary military and naval credits just issued.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

THEATRE VOYONS

Well here is a real novelty at last as a rett from heroes and heroines being saved from death in the last scene of the play should meet. For the last three days of the week at the Voynos there will be nothing but music and laughter, as there is not serious drama on the bill. The feature in four parts shows all the leading New York cafes at intermission when the girls are waking up for the night. All of this season's favorite cabaret singers and dancers are shown in the dances that made them famous. If you miss this now you will be sorry because it is a real novelty. Just look at the posters in the lobby and you will be convinced that the managers have got what they say—the biggest bowery show of the year.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

Dorothy Donnelly, who is making her screen debut on the Metro program, at the B. F. Keith theatre this afternoon, in "Sealed Valley," made her first appearance on the stage at the old Murray Hill theatre, New York, in 1894. During the year she has appeared in ordinary roles under the direction of her father, Henry V. Donnelly. Five years after adopting the stage as a career, she appeared in the principal role of "Daughters of Men," Charles Klein's great play, at the Channing and Little Grey Lady. After eight years after her first appearance she became the star in "The Lion and the Mouse," and followed that with the dramatic triumph, "The Sins of Society." On February 2nd, 1910, Miss Donnelly created a sensation in dramatic acting by her fine portrayal of the title role in Andrew W. Savage's great production of "Madame X." She later created a wave of popularity by her remarkable acting in "The Song of Songs." In her first screen production, tested the law, she is shown as an Indian maiden, who sacrifices her love in order that another may be happy. She has a superb opportunity to display her talents as an emotional actress. The picture is in five parts and over 300 scenes, and, assisting Miss Donnelly will be a cast of 62 Broadway players. Five other pictures will also be shown.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Today will be accounted as eventful by motion picture lovers, since "The Eternal City" will be shown in "The Eternals" for the first time. So far and grand is this masterpiece that it was necessary to produce it in eight reels. The play progresses amid gorgeous and beautiful scenes taken in Rome the city of reliefs. Many historically notable places from many cities of Europe are shown, and the surprising scenes as told the story which is strangely acted upon by fate. The grand old coliseum lying in ruins is made the centre of one of the most stirring scenes where a mob of hundreds of people were struggling its occupants. The principal scenes are highly dignified and highly impressive. Miss Pauline Frederick appears as Flora who is swayed by fate and is ruled by power other than hers. She is splendidly convincing in this, the leading role. The arrangement was all to secure this wonderful work of Hall Caine's, the author of "The Christian," for three days only. The seats are now on sale. In the afternoon the prices are 5, 10 and 15 cents; in the evening, 5, 10, 15 and 25 cents. Besides "The Eternal City," several extra reels will also be shown, among which are two reels of warlike nature, and seldom, if ever, equalled in realism.

CANOBIE LAKE

That big banner program at Canobie Lake park theatre this week is drawing bigger crowds than ever to this breezy, enjoyable park and perhaps the best advertisement of the season is the comment of the patrons themselves as they leave the theatre after the matinee and evening performances. "A Holiday in Dixie," a musical, vocal, dancing and comedy offering by the well known entertainers, is the show that impels visitors that carries it through its course, introducing these live, happy performers in raggy songs, gay dances and a storm of comedy that radiates the laughs all over the theatre. Waitman, the tall, dark, polished, is proving one of the big hits of the show.

"Stronous Half Hour," an hilarious comedy sketch by The Smalls adds still further merriment to the bill. Al and Bunny Fox in a snappy singing and talking novelty, George Murphy, the king of hard-shoe dancing, and the vaudeville act, which is the finale, included, are in the same degree of merit.

The matinee performances at 3:15 o'clock afford patrons plenty of time to reach the theatre and immediately after the performances there are plenty of opportunities for neighboring towns with a "dinner line" returning from the park. In the evening the performance will start at 8:15 o'clock and again the patrons will be afforded a "clear line" return.

TWO FIREMEN SENTENCED

C. H. PAUL SAYS HE RECEIVED $50 FROM W. H. THOMPSON FOR SETTING FIRE

SALEM, July 29.—William H. Thompson and Charles H. Paul, call members of the fire department in Haverhill, were sentenced in an arson case by Judge Sisk in the superior criminal court yesterday to the reformatory at Concord.

Thompson pleaded guilty to accessory before the fact and Paul pleaded guilty to setting fire to a cottage on the shore of Crystal lake to enable Thompson to secure $300 insurance. Paul said he was paid $50 by Thompson to set the fire.

Philip H. George, convicted of larceny of jewelry in Nahant, was sentenced to the house of correction for four months.

FRENCH AEROPLANE FELL

ONE MAN JUMPED AND WAS KILLED—THE OTHER BURNED TO DEATH

ISSY LE MOULINEAUX, France, July 29.—A French aeroplane carrying a pilot and an observer fell to the ground from a height of about 1000 feet while making a flight here last night. One of the men jumped as the machine was falling but was killed on striking the ground near a railroad track. The other occupant of the machine was burned to death as the motor exploded when it hit the ground.

NEW NOTE TO GERMANY

STATE DEPT. OFFICIALS TO ASK PAYMENT FOR LOSS OF STEAMER LEECLAWAN

WASHINGTON, July 29.—State department officials today were drafting a note to Germany asking payment for loss of the American steamer Leeclawan torpedoed by a German submarine off the Orkney Islands last Saturday on the ground of violation of the Prussian-American treaty of 1825.

The preparation of the document followed the receipt of a report from Alfred C. Duncanson at Dundee, Scotland, which showed that the Leeclawan's captain, who attempted to escape, but submitted to trial, was scath after warning shots had been fired.

Officials held that the right to escape is conceded by international law, but repeated attempts to evade capture or forcible resistance being regarded as affecting the case.

And details in the minds of officials that the treaty of 1825 had been violated were removed by unofficial advice which said that the German submarine commander was unwilling to let the Leeclawan's cargo and to allow her to proceed. The claim for damages is similar to that made in the case of the William P. Frye.

PRICE ONE CENT

THE SPELLBINDER

This year in all probability there will be no state progressive ticket, and few, if any, candidates for minor offices from among the members of the Bull Moose party, and hence what will become of those 36,000 votes that were recorded for Walker in last year's state election?

There were 12,000 unprogressives last year, but with a clear-cut partisan contest between Governor Walsh and Hon. Samuel McCall, in the state election, 36,000 votes were cast for the candidate of the progressive party for governor, a fact that would indicate that there were at that time 36,000 straight-faced, conscientious progressive party voters in Massachusetts who stuck to a hopeless cause on principle.

And how those 36,000 are going to vote in the coming state election is what is bothering the candidates, managers and spellbinders of both parties throughout the commonwealth.

Some time ago the progressive state organization sent out word that there would probably be no state ticket this fall but called upon all city and town committees of the party to hold together and preserve their identity until 1916, when a presidential campaign will be due. Thus, the secretary of state has been notified by the secretaries of the local committees that they will have committee tickets on the ballot, though it is extremely doubtful if any other progressives will appear as candidates except in remote cases where there will be candidates nominally, but practically to help out a candidate of one of the other parties, as can be and is often done.

It was argued in their progressive state committee some time ago that the only way in which the progressives could return to the republican party with consistency would be by the nomination on the part of the republicans of Hon. Charles S. Bird for governor. This was strongly advocated before the state committee by A. S. Goldman, Esq., of this city, secretary of the local progressive city committee, and a pronounced progressive, and by Hon. Joseph Walker, himself, but there was nothing doing in that line, and the contest has narrowed down to a straight party fight between Governor Walsh and in all probability Hon. Samuel McCall, who appears to have the pole on Hon. Grafton Cushing; and to which of the two are the progressives going to lend their support?

In Lowell, the sentiment among prominent progressives is for Walsh. Mr. Goldman, when seen by the writer, after impressing the latter with the fact that he was speaking only as an individual, and not as secretary of the city committee, said: "I shall vote for Governor Walsh, for I believe that he more nearly represents the principles advanced by the progressive party than either of the gentlemen now before the public as the republican candidates for governor. But I speak only for myself." And there are others who believe as does Mr. Goldman, I have no authority for making the statement, but am of the opinion that Charles H. Hobson and Daniel Cosgrove will vote for Governor Walsh in preference to either Mr. McCall or Mr. Cushing. A well known member of the Bull Moose party, when asked by the writer as to the percentage of progressives who would support Governor Walsh, replied that the democratic candidate would get over 20,000 votes from the third party. "Last year," he said, "there were 205 city and town committees and they are going to do some effective work in this campaign, even if there is to be no party ticket, and their work to a large extent will be in favor of the democratic candidate. Furthermore, I believe that next year the only salvation of the republican party will be to nominate Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, for president. Otherwise, they cannot hope to defeat President Wilson for another term."

Conditions Locally

In the local contests a great effort will be made by the candidates of both parties to get the progressive vote, and in this respect great hopes are held out to the democratic candidates for senator and representative. During the past few years the appearance of the progressive candidates in a senatorial or representative field has meant democratic success as the progressives drew largely from the republican ranks. In the case of Daniel Cosgrove for Lieutenant governor, and in the 14th district of Michael A. Lee for representative, two notable exceptions were evidenced. Mr. Cosgrove received a large democratic vote while the democratic vote accorded Mr. Lee, while small, was just sufficient to defeat Rep. Brennan, the democratic candidate. In the senate and legislature this year, nothing has been done that would attract the progressives back to the republican party. The representatives of the latter party have stood consistently for stand-pat legislation at all times, and the few progressives who found their way to Beacon Hill have stood with the democrats. On this account it is assumed that progressives generally when voting for the democratic candidate at the head of the ticket will go down the line and support the democratic candidates for the senate and house. Such being the case, the democrats have great hopes of electing more candidates than ever. Locally, there will be no progressive candidates for senator in either of the districts in which Lowell plays a part. In the seventh, Henry P. Dunn, at present has trifling opposition in his own party from one Rep. Burke of Lynn, who it is said may yet withdraw, while in the eighth district it looks like a clearly defined contest between James P. Dunnigan of North Chelmsford, as the democratic hope, and Senator Marchand, the republican incumbent, seeking another term.

There will be no progressive candidate in the 14th representative district this fall, leaving the field clear to former Rep. Brennan, who was defeated for a second term by Rep. Colburn, who in turn is seeking a second term. Rep. Brennan was defeated last year by only 54 votes. Michael A. Lee, a former democrat and a well known in-his-official received 65 votes on election day, and these 65 were just enough to defeat Rep. Brennan. If the 65 who supported Mr. Lee did so because of his affiliation to the cause of labor, then to be consistent they must support Mr. Brennan against Rep. Colburn, for the former when in office supported labor legislation, while the latter opposed it. If they were consistent progressives then they should support Mr. Brennan, who was opposed to the stand-pat legislation favored by Rep. Colburn as a member of the re-

Alleged Belgian Diplomatic Report—Stated Germany's Isolation Aim of British Policy

BERLIN, via London, July 29, 11:40 (nation's commercial and naval growth). Laalaing is said to have asserted that the British feared the days of their naval supremacy were numbered.

A statement attributed to Baron Leghail, under date of May 7, 1905, was that while King Edward was in Paris he said the confidence existing between Germany and France had disappeared and conditions were like those twenty years earlier.

Baron Greindl is said to have been the author of a letter written Sept. 23, 1905, praising the triple alliance, led by Germany, for having maintained European peace for thirty years and declaring the new disposition of the British fleet was unquestionably directed against Germany. The same minister is quoted as having asserted in a later letter that King Edward was hostile to Germany and that Germany's isolation was the aim of British policy.

Count Lalzing and Baron Greindl are quoted as having reported in February, 1905, that British hostility to Germany was caused by jealousy of the last

TRIP'S ISLAND INVESTED BY PLEASURE SEEKERS FROM LYNN—"IT IS ALWAYS FAIR WEATHER," ETC., ETC.

The members of the Lynn chamber of commerce enjoyed a day off yesterday and some of the wise ones of the organization picked out as their stopping place the Vesper Country club on the beautiful Island at Tyngsboro, the event being the annual outing of the chamber.

The day was ideal for such an occasion and the trip to Lowell and the neighboring town, which was made in automobiles, proved a most delightful one, while the program carried out at the grounds could not be beaten.

The automobiles numbering 75, well filled with merry makers, left Lynn shortly after 8 o'clock yesterday morning and passed through Lowell shortly after 10 o'clock. The party was met at Wamesit by Mayor D. J. Murphy and Robert F. Marden and John H. Murphy, president and secretary respectively of the Lowell board of trade, and each man was extended the "key to Lowell."

Upon reaching the grounds a very appetizing dinner was served and the afternoon was devoted to sports. It was planned to have a long afternoon of speeches but at the eleventh hour this part of the program was changed and instead of addresses, sporting events were conducted. The guests of honor at the outing were Mayor Murphy, President Marden and Secretary Murphy of Lowell board of trade, and Congresswoman Phyllis of Lynn. The excursionists left the club grounds at 6 o'clock. The committee in charge of the outing consisted of John B. Atkin, chairman; William Day, Jr., secretary; Eugene B. Fraser, treasurer and Hon. Neil Barney, ex-mayor of Lynn as well as a score of other energetic workers of the Lynn chamber of commerce.
